

VASSALLO
AUCTIONEERS

Conditions of Sale

To participate in the sale means full acceptance of the following conditions:

The highest bidder shall be the buyer; and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold.

1. The auctioneer has the right to advance the bidding, to separate, join together or to withdraw any lot at his absolute discretion.
2. All statements in the catalogues, advertisements or brochures of forthcoming sales of Vassallo Auctioneers are statements of opinion and are not to be relied upon as statements of fact; intending purchasers must satisfy themselves by inspection as to the physical description of any lot and as to whether or not any lot has been repaired.
3. Purchasers shall give their name, address and pay a deposit of no less than 10% of the of total hammer price at which the lots were purchased, if required to do so.
4. No purchase shall be claimed or removed until it has been paid for and the sale has been concluded. All purchases shall be removed at the buyer's risk and expense by the end of the second working day after the end of the sale, failing which the Auctioneer shall not be responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.
5. The purchaser shall pay the hammer price together with a premium of 5% of the hammer price. The premium only attracts VAT at a standard rate of 18% and is payable by the purchaser.
6. Payment and collection shall be effected on Monday 13th July 2026 from 09:30 to 11:30 a.m., Tuesday 14th July 2026 from 09:30 to 11:30, Wednesday 15th July 2026 & Thursday 16th July 2026 from 09:30 to 12:30 & 16:30 to 19:30.
7. The buyer gives Vassallo Auctioneers full and absolute right to use photographs and illustrations of lots sold at auction at any time at its absolute discretion (whether or not in connection with the auction)

CATALOGUE OF GRAND SALE BY AUCTION
OF FINE ANTIQUES, MELITENSIA,
OLD MASTER PAINTINGS, SILVER,
COLLECTORS' ITEMS & WORKS OF ART ON

Saturday 11th July 2026 at 2:30 p.m.

Monday 13th July 2026 at 4:00 p.m.

Tuesday 14th July 2026 at 4:00 p.m.

Wednesday 15th July 2026 at 4:00 p.m.

AT

13, VILLA ELJOHN, TRIQ IL-HRIEREB, MSIDA
Part of the estate of the late Mr & Mrs John Axisa

ON VIEW

Wednesday 8th July 2026 from 9:30a.m. to 7:30p.m.

Thursday 9th July 2026 from 9:30a.m. to 7:30p.m.

Friday 10th July 2026 from 9:30a.m. to 7:30p.m.

Saturday 11th July 2026 from 9:30a.m. to 11:30a.m.

Monday 13th July 2026 from 9:30a.m. to 11:30a.m.

Tuesday 14th July 2026 from 9:30a.m. to 11:30a.m.

Wednesday 15th July 2026 9:30a.m. to 11:30a.m.

1ST DAY OF SALE LOT 1 TO 386

2ND DAY OF SALE LOT 387 TO 682

3RD DAY OF SALE LOT 683 TO 1017

4TH DAY OF SALE LOT 1018 TO END

€ 3.00

FIRST DAY OF SALE
SAT. 11TH JULY 2026
At 2:30p.m.

ENTRANCE HALL

001* A pair of late 19th cent copper engravings depicting Venetian scenes in gilt frames (€60-80)

002* A 1930s French school oil on board painting depicting a fisherman taking down the sails inscribed to the bottom in gilt frame by André Salomon known as Salomon le Tropezien (1900-1960?) (€80-100)

003* An Italian maiolica water twin-handled pitcher decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist and a white porcelain posy holder in the shape of a sleigh (€20-30)

004* An antique mid-19th cent Sicilian maiolica wine pitcher decorated with stylised designs to the waist (€60-80)

005* A French 18th cent style mahogany and bronzed metal-mounted oval occasional table, the triple-moulded top on a bronze mounted frieze perforated by a drawer decorated with swags of flowers and foliage on four slender legs mounted with caryatids to the frieze (€100-120)

006* An antique 19th cent glazed terracotta storage jar complete with screw-on lid (€40-50)

007* A set of five antique 17th cent engravings

depicting ancient reliefs from the Medici collection by Jacobi de Rubens dated 1693 in fine mahogany and gilt frames (€1000-1400)

008* A pair of antique early 20th cent oil on canvas paintings depicting views of the Grand Harbour and Marsamxetto Harbour at dusk and at dawn with luzzus, some in full sail in the middle distance in gilt frames by Luigi Maria Galea (1847-1917) (€1500-1800)

009* A pair of late 19th cent oil on board paintings depicting luzzus in full sail in gilt frames by Enrico Busuttill (1852-1908) (€350-400)

010* A pair of antique Victorian oil on canvas paintings depicting coastal scenes with sailing boats in period ornate gilt frames, signed (€60-80)

011* An antique oil on canvas painting depicting a traditional Maltese country scene with a cart carrying bundles of hay beside a building by Raffaele Bonnici Cali' (1907-2002) (€300-350)

012* An antique oil on canvas painting depicting a traditional Maltese country scene with an arched water fountain and a lamp-lighter climbing up a ladder by Raffaele Bonnici Cali' (1907-2002) (€300-350)

013* An antique Florentine Rococo Style gilt salon mirror in the Chinoiserie taste, the cornice in the shape of an urn with a flower and foliage on a carved ribbon frame mounted with foliage (€350-400)

014* An oil on paper painting depicting a view of Gozo by Maria Rossella Dalmás (b. 1948) (€80-100)

015* A set of six antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany salon side chairs (Tal-Warda), the carved top rail decorated with roses on scrolls and carved acanthus leaves on carved back rails on upholstered seats on turned legs (€200-400)

016* An antique 19th Cent green glass oil lamp, the well raised on a marble shaft on a silvered metal square base (€25-30)

017* An antique 19th cent Chinese Rose Medallion barrel-shaped spice jar decorated with a garden scene to the waist with ladies in traditional costume (€25-30)

018* An antique 19th cent Chinese Rose Medallion baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with birds and foliage and symbols of good luck mounted with gilt handles (€250-300)

019* An antique 19th cent Satsuma crackled effect baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with men in traditional costume to the waist (€30-40)

020* An antique Victorian English china green

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| and white chamber candlestick having a twig-shaped handle and an antique Victorian oval serving dish decorated with stylised flowers and foliage to the base (€15-20)                                               | on a twisted shaft on a square-shaped base (€100-140)                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Enrico Busuttil (1852-1908) (€200-250)                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 021* A Chinese 19 th cent Cantonese wall plate decorated with a court scene to the base (€20-30)                                                                                                         | 028* An antique late 19 th cent oil on board painting depicting various luzzus in full sail in period gilt frame by Enrico Busuttil (1852-1908) (€400-500)                                                                                                           | 034* An antique late 19 th cent oil on board painting depicting a luzzu in full sail in stained wooden frame by Enrico Busuttil (1852-1908) (€200-250)                                                                                               |
| 022* An antique late 19 th Cent Maltese mahogany side table, the shaped frieze perorated by a concealed drawer on a vase-shaped shaft on a quadripartite scalloped base on carved scroll feet (€450-500) | 029* A pair of antique 19 th cent pencil on paper drawings depicting coastal scenes in wood finish frames (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                   | 035* A pair of 1940s Chinese water buffalo carved horns decorated with dragons raised on a wooden plinth (€25-40)                                                                                                                                               |
| 023* A pair of Cantonese Famille Vert cache pots decorated with court scenes to the waist amongst symbols of good luck and the inside decorated with swimming gold fish (€60-80)                             | 030* An antique early 19 th cent pencil on paper drawing depicting a profile of a female figure entitled Fortuna (early work of the artist) in brown moulded frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€350-400)                                               | 036* A pair of bisque figurines representing a lady and a gentleman in 18 th cent costume and an English bone china bonbon dish decorated with roses and foliage throughout and a blue and white Chinese covered bowl and a matching saucer (€15-20) |
| 024* An antique mid-19 th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting the Ta' Giezu Crucifix in ebonised and gilt frame (€80-100)                                                               | 031* An antique early 19 th cent pencil on paper drawing depicting a profile of Paris holding a sphere in one hand inscribed Bella and entitled Paride (early work of the artist) in brown moulded frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€350-400)  | 037* An antique early 20 th cent clear glass oil lamp raised on a trumpet-shaped base complete with funnel (€25-30)                                                                                                                                  |
| 025* An antique Victorian wall pocket in the shape of a gable window with a female figure dressed in 18 th cent costume beside a stork (€20-30)                                                          | 032* A green and gilt Maltese clock, the swan neck-shaped cornice mounted with a central Maltese cross and finial on a Roman numeral sail decorated with a view of Mdina and painted flowers to the spandrels on a shaped plinth base mounted with a central finial (€800-1000) | 038* An antique late 18 th cent Savona baluster-shaped pharmacy jar decorated with palm trees and numbered 18 (mended to lip) (€200-240)                                                                                                             |
| 026* An antique 19 th cent green china cache pot decorated with reliefs of a red rose to the waist (€15-25)                                                                                              | 033* An antique late 19 th cent oil on board painting depicting a luzzu in full sail in stained wooden frame by                                                                                                                                                      | 039* An antique late 19 th cent Maltese olivewood and parquetry inlaid chest of drawers of small proportions the moulded top on two long drawers raised on tapering legs (€1500-1700)                                                                |
| 027* An antique late 19 th cent ebonised and gilt column, the square carved top                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 040* A vintage crystal hanging light mounted with crystal Strass beads (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                          |

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                    |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 041* | An antique Maltese late 19th cent round occasional table, the white Carrara inset marble top on a moulded frame on a short frieze on a turned shaft on three splay feet (€140-160) | 049* | A hand-knotted wool on wool Persian Shiraz carpet having a red field on a geometric pattern (€200-250)                                                                                                     | 057* | A pair of 1960s brass lampshades complete with glass shades (€25-30)                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 042* | A wool-on-wool hand-knotted Balouch rug having a geometric design on a brown field (€250-350)                                                                                      | 050* | An antique Victorian ebonised and walnut side table, the inlaid top having four collapsible flaps on fluted tapering legs joined by an X-shaped stretcher throughout mounted with ormolu mounts (€300-400) | 058* | An ancient Punic twin-handled funerary vase (€200-250)                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 043* | Two antique Victorian mahogany balloon-back salon side chairs having carved top and back rails on upholstered seats on turned legs (€80-100)                                       | 051* | A glazed terracotta storage jar and a brown glass storage glass bottle (€20-35)                                                                                                                            | 059* | An antique Victorian blue and white transfer sauce tureen complete with under dish and a leaf-shaped under-dish (€25-30)                                                                                                                     |
| 044* | A large antique Maltese 19th cent terracotta storage jar having a thick lip and a glazed interior (€350-400)                                                                       | 052* | An antique late 19th cent French bronze mantle clock mounted with porcelain plaques decorated with flowers and foliage (€25-30)                                                                            | 060* | An antique 19th cent lithograph entitled View of Valletta from off St Elmo, showing entrance to Quarantine Harbour in ebonised and gilt frame (€30-40)                                                                                |
| 045* | A set of twelve framed coloured prints entitled Cries of London in ebonised and gilt frames (€60-80)                                                                        | 053* | A mahogany square-shaped occasional table, the moulded top on four turned supports on a moulded base (€40-50)                                                                                              | 061* | A wall brass-mounted mahogany letter rack, the racks decorated with hammered reliefs of galleons (€15-20)                                                                                                                                    |
| 046* | A set of three antique early 20 th cent Cloisonné baluster-shaped flowers vases decorated with symbols of good luck and another (€35-45)                                | 054* | A set of four antique copper baluster-shaped measuring jugs of graduated sizes complete with hinged domes and brass finials (€35-45)                                                                       | 062* | An antique Victorian rosewood card table, the swivel D-end top opening to reveal a baize-lined top on a carved and shaped frieze on a baluster-shaped shaft on a round base on carved claw feet raised on castors (€450-500)                 |
| 047* | An antique 19 th cent cast bronze figure of the bathing Venus, after the antique raised on a round base formerly a statue for a fountain (€700-800))                    | 055* | An antique white porcelain urn-shaped cache pot decorated with reliefs of flowers and foliage to the waist raised on a square base (€20-30)                                                                | 063* | A Florentine gilt oval frame having a print depicting a portrait of a young woman in 18 th cent costume and another (€10-15)                                                                                                      |
| 048* | A 1960s bronze and frosted glass hanging light (€30-40)                                                                                                                            | 056* | A 1930s mahogany round cache pot stand, the moulded top on a short frieze raised on four club feet (€30-40)                                                                                                | 064* | A 1960s cream and gilt console table and matching mirror, the console table having an alabaster moulded top on a short frieze decorated with swags of flowers on a putto-shaped shaft raised on a round base and a matching mirror (€80-100) |

- 065* A pair of porcelain large figures representing a lady and a gentleman in 18th Cent costume (€20-30)
- 066* An antique 19th cent gilt bronze mantle clock, the round porcelain Roman numeral dial surmounted by a female dancer beside a stallion on a shaped rocaille case raised on scroll feet and a further gilt wood base (€60-80)
- 067* An oil on canvas painting depicting an English farmyard in gilt acanthus leaf frame by Luigi Camilleri (€30-40)
- 068* A 1960s Louis XV style gilt mirror having a bevelled glass (€30-40)
- 069* A resin group representing lovers in 18th cent country attire beside a fountain raised on a wooden base (€10-15)
- 070* A mahogany two-door showcase of small proportions, the glazed top having a moulded frame on a two-door case, with glazed back and sides on a long drawer raised on short cabriole legs (€60-80)
- 071* A collection of ornaments on top shelf (€10-15)
- 072* A pair of Capodimonte busts representing a young boy and girl raised on round tapering pedestals and a pair of Capodimonte style figurines representing altar boys and four resin figures representing seated putti (€40-50)
- 073* A collection of ornaments on bottom two shelves of showcase (€10-15)
- 074* An antique 19th cent silvered church candlestick having a turned shaft raised on a shaped base (€40-50)
- 075* An antique 19th cent lithograph depicting a saint of the Order and wearing the robes of the Order of St John after Mattia Preti drawn by P. Cuschieri and printed by Brockdorff Brothers in mahogany and gilt frame (€80-100)
- 076* An antique wool on wood Shiraz carpet having a geometric design on a red field (€250-300)
- 077* A 1960s Gozo Onyx floor ash tray ash tray mounted on a bronze shaft mounted with onyx and raised on an onyx base and a bronze stair light (€30-50)
- 078* An antique late Victorian English School oil on canvas painting depicting a portrait of a young boy wearing blue attire looking at a book in period gilt frame (€120-150)
- 079* A pair of antique Victorian Losol Ware Chuan Keeling & Co Ltd., Burslem flower vases having long necks raised on octagonal bases decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€40-60)
- 080* An antique late 19th cent olivewood and inlaid dwarf chest of drawers, the concave moulded top on three shaped drawers throughout inlaid with medallions of lions on a shaped apron on cabriole legs (€400-450)
- 081* An antique Edwardian English School oil on canvas painting depicting a cottage scene with a tower in the middle distance in ornate gilt frame (€40-50)
- 082* An antique 19th cent French gilt spelter mantle clock, the round Roman numeral ceramic dial mounted with a female figure dressed in 18th cent costume on a rocaille base (€40-50)
- 083* A mahogany and inlaid chest of drawers of narrow proportions, the moulded top on four short drawers on plinth base raised on turned bun feet (€120-140)
- 084* A Persian hand-knotted Baluch wool on wool carpet having a geometric pattern on a dark red field (€300-400)
- 085* An antique Victorian mahogany and inlaid oval centre table, the carved moulded top inlaid with urns amongst scrolls on four turned uprights on a round vase on four carved splay feet (€400-500)
- 086* An antique Victorian mahogany hall chair, the carved shield-shaped back decorated with a central shield

on a wooden seat raised on turned legs (€60-80) by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€90-100) ormolu mounts on a plinth base (€1500-2000)

087* A vintage Cantonese Rose medallion large flower vase decorated with court scenes to the waist amongst symbols of good luck and mounted with shaped pink handles (€60-80)

SITTING-ROOM

088* An antique black painted wrought-iron umbrella and stick stand (€80-100)

089* An antique early 19th cent water-colour on paper painting depicting a botanical study entitled La Bellissima Viola Gladolius Communis with pencil studies of leaf composition, flowering heads from different angles to one side and annotations in gilt moulded frame (blue flowers) by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€250-300)

090* An antique early 19th cent water-colour on paper painting depicting a botanical study in gilt moulded frame inscribed Parte Centrale by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€250-300)

091* An early 19th cent framed water-colour on paper painting depicting botanical study of a carnation in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€90-100)

092* An early 19th cent framed water-colour on paper painting depicting botanical studies inscribed Ranuncolo Doppio in gilt frame

093* An antique 19th cent German School oil on canvas painting depicting a scene from Gerusalemme Liberata by Tarquinio Tasso of a turbaned man in Oriental costume assisting a knight in armour with Erminia wearing a turban dismounting her white horse beneath a tree with a mountainous landscape in carved gilt frame (€1600-1800) inscribed on recto E. Berghitiz (€1600-1800)

094* Three hand-cut lead crystal items: a covered jar, a basket-shaped bonbon dish and a baluster-shaped flower vase (€25-30)

095* A pair of antique Victorian blue and white bisque figurines representing a boy and girl in 18th cent country attire (€30-40)

096* An antique Satsuma Meiji Period baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with Samurai warriors to the waist (€40-50)

097* A Villeroy and Boch Petite Fleurs covered jar, an antique blue and white tea leaves bowl and a bone china square trinket tray (€20-30)

098* An antique mid-19th Cent Boulle, ebonised and brass inlaid on tortoiseshell credenza, the serpentine-fronted moulded top on an ormolu and inlaid frieze on a bombé-shaped single door with shaped sides mounted with

099* A pair of Florentine gilt single light wall lights (€30-40)

100* An antique early 19th cent pen and wash miniature painting depicting a still life of flowers and foliage in a vase inscribed Vaso di Fiori by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€200-250)

101* An antique early 19th cent gouache on paper painting depicting a spaniel chasing a wild duck beside a stream in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€450-500)

102* An antique early 19th Cent pencil on paper botanical study of a yellow flower in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€80-100)

103* An antique early 19th cent pen and wash miniature representing a Roman view with a city to the background, a river to the middle distance and a horse drinking from a fountain with a farmer on horseback in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€300-400)

104* An antique early 19th cent gouache on paper miniature depicting a design of a frescoed wall decorated with panels of landscapes and a draped dado rail in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€700-800)

- 105* An antique 19th Cent oil on copper painting depicting St. Paul beside an open book in moulded gilt period frame (€350-400)
- 106* A pair of Capodimonte porcelain busts representing a boy and girl raised on pedestals (€35-45)
- 107* A pair of Capodimonte busts representing a boy and girl, the boy wearing a cap (€45-50)
- 108* A brass table-top easel in the baroque style (€80-100)
- 109* Four Royal Albert Hamilton bone china serving plates decorated with spring flowers and foliage on a burgundy rim (€10-15)
- 110* An antique early 20th Cent mahogany and inlaid cartouche-shaped centre table of small proportions, the brass mounted top inlaid with a central panel of a spray of flowers and foliage on a high frieze mounted with brass mounts on four elegant cabriole legs with gilt bronze mounts and sabots (€300-350)
- 111* An antique Delft round rose bowl centre-piece having round perforations to the rim decorated with geometric hand-painted design throughout (€60-80)
- 112* A pair of red velvet curtains complete with pelmets and sheers (€30-40)
- 113* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany drawing-room suite consisting of a three-seater sofa, two armchairs and four side chairs upholstered in tapestry (€500-550)
- 114* An antique 18th Cent engraving depicting a portrait of Cardinal Louis Francois Auguste de Rohan Chabot Duc de Rohan Prince of Leon, Archbishop of Besancon after Regnaud and engraved by Pierre Salvatore in gilt frame (€25-30)
- 115* A rare pencil on paper study of a male bearded man by Gorg Borg (1906-1983) in gilt frame (€100-120)
- 116* A fine antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting The Immaculate Conception in gilt frame (€800-1000)
- 117* A Capodimonte four branch candelabrum encrusted throughout with roses and foliage, the shaft mounted with a seated winged putto playing the flute raised on a shaped base encrusted with roses and foliage (€40-60)
- 118* An antique Victorian pap boat decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€15-20)
- 119* An antique late Victorian-style centre-piece in the shape of a basket encrusted with flowers and foliage supported by three putti on a round base also encrusted with flowers and foliage (€60-80)
- 120* A Dresden porcelain baluster-shaped candlestick on Rococo design having hand-painted flowers and foliage and encrusted with flowers and foliage (€100-120)
- 121* An antique Edwardian basket-shaped bonbon dish mounted with a figure of a putto having a twig-shaped handle raised on scroll feet (€40-60)
- 122* An antique Edwardian mahogany salon showcase, the moulded and line-inlaid cornice on a single-door case on four out-swept slender legs (€300-350)
- 123* A four-piece hand-made terracotta nativity group signed J. Deb dated 97 (€60-80)
- 124* A Dresden figure of a lady dressed in traditional costume with a lamb by her feet (€120-140)
- 125* A pair of Capodimonte figures representing putti playing musical instruments beside a flowering tree stump raised on short pedestals (€60-80)
- 126* A Wallendorf 1764 figurine representing a ballerina (€40-50)
- 127* A Wallendorf 1764 figurine representing a ballerina (€40-50)
- 128* A German Karl Enes porcelain figure representing a bird of song (€30-40)

- 129* A pair of antique Victorian bisque figurines representing a lady and a gentleman in 18th cent costume (€20-30)
- 130* A pair of antique Victorian bisque figurines a boy and girl dressed in 18th cent costume (€40-60)
- 131* A Spanish porcelain M. Requena figurine representing a goose and a Wedgewood Osborne cabinet flower vase decorated with Spring flowers and foliage (€15-20)
- 132* An antique Victorian bisque figurine representing a girl seated holding a bowl and a spoon (€40-50)
- 133* A pair of hand-painted Capodimonte figurines representing a boy and girl in 18th cent costume holding baskets of flowers and poultry at their feet (€50-80)
- 134* An antique Victorian copper lustre jug decorated with stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€25-30)
- 135* An antique 19th cent Japanese Imari baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€40-50)
- 136* An antique 19th cent Japanese Imari baluster-shaped small cache pot decorated with stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€40-50)
- 137* An antique Victorian Allertons Est. 1831 small jug decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist (€20-30)
- 138* A pair of antique Cloisonné baluster-shaped vases, a hand-cut lead crystal flower vase, a bisque figure of a child seated wearing a bonnet, a Victorian square-shaped flower vase and a miniature baluster-shaped flower vase (€20-30)
- 139* An assorted lot of antique porcelain items on bottom shelf (€15-20)
- 140* A pair of antique Victorian bisque posy holders in the shape of children pushing wicker wheelbarrows (€40-60)
- 141* A lot of various antique figurines and other ornaments (€20-30)
- 142* A fine antique Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting a three quarters portrait of a Conventual chaplain of the Order of St John wearing his cassock with the Eight-point cross and the Order of Magisterial Grace possibly a portrait of Bishop Alpheran de Bussan (1684-1757) in period gilt frame (€4000-5000)
- 143* A mid-19th cent oil on board painting depicting a lake scene with trees and vegetation to one side and two female bathers in the middle distance in gilt frame attributed to Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€300-400)
- 144* An antique early 19th cent pen and wash painting depicting ruins of a Gothic Cathedral in ebonised and gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€200-250)
- 145* A Florentine gilt serving tray decorated with a hand-painted still life of flowers and foliage to the base (€15-20)
- 146* An antique Victorian mahogany occasional table, the cartouche-shaped moulded top on a turned shaft on three scroll-shaped feet raised on bun feet (€200-250)
- 147* A pair of Dresden figurines representing le Duc de Rivoli and Govion Saint Cyr dressed in French uniforms with inscription to the bottom (€120-160)
- 148* A pair of hand-carved Florentine gilt wall sconces decorated with carved scrolls and foliage (€40-60)
- 149* A pair of Florentine gilt small cartouche-shaped salon mirrors, decorated with scrolls flowers and foliage (€40-60)
- 150* A framed print depicting an 18th cent landscape after an old master (€20-30)
- 151* An antique 17th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting St Paul holding a book and a sword in one hand wearing a red cloak in period carved wood frame by Stefano Erradi (1630-1716) (€4000-5000)

- 152* Three antique early 19th cent framed water-colour on paper paintings depicting botanical studies of flowers in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil (1798-1854) (€700-800)
- 153* An antique 18th cent carved wood figure of the infant Jesus raised on an ebonised wooden base (€600-700)
- 154* A pair of 1950s white and gilt flower vases in the French taste (€20-30)
- 155* A fine quality German Winterhalter and Hoffmeier musical bracket clock, the ebonised case mounted with ormolu finials having a cut steel Roman numeral dial with cut gilt spandrels surmounted by a second dial on an 8-day triple fusee musical deadbeat movement with a Westminster chime on five gongs (from the collection of AIC Louis Busuttil, curator of the Maltese Clock Exhibition of FPM in 1992) (€2250-3000)
- 156* An antique 19th cent Imari bowl decorated with hand-painted stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€30-40)
- 157* An antique Maltese late 18th cent olivewood and inlaid chest of drawers, the moulded top inlaid with cartouche motif on four long drawers mounted with brass lion head handles on inlaid sides on a shaped apron on cabriole legs (€10,000-15,000)
- 158* An antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting a three-quarters portrait of a young gentleman holding a plan in one hand and a divider in the other, inscribed Michelangelo Grech Mori il 15 Giugno 1777, in period moulded gilt frame (€3500-4000)
- 159* An antique 18th cent hand-coloured engraving depicting Mercury stealing the flock of cattle from Apollo while distracting him with his music overseen by other gods on a second tier in gilt frame (€35-40)
- 160* An early 19th cent miniature depicting a bust length portrait of a woman dressed in period costume holding a glass in one hand (unfinished) in gilt frame by Salvatore Busuttil? (1798-1854) (€120-150)
- 161* An antique mid-19th cent engraving depicting three men in a boat amongst trees and flooded buildings (€20-30)
- 162* A large antique brass oil lamp, the frosted glass shade on a crystal well on a Corinthian fluted column shaft on a stepped base (€250-300)
- 163* A bisque figurine representing a girl holding a basket, an antique 1930s bisque group representing two children dressed in Chinese costume and a Florentine gilt triptych depicting the Virgin of Sorrows (€15-20)
- 164* An antique late 19th cent French mantle clock, the gilt bronze case having a finial in the shape of an urn with flowers and foliage on a round painted Roman numeral dial decorated with plaques of country scenes raised on a plinth base on scroll feet (€80-100)
- 165* A 1960s Maltese walnut drum table, the round top on four frieze drawers and four dummy drawers on four turned carved uprights on a tripartite base raised on turned feet (€150-200)
- 166* An antique 19th cent oil on canvas painting depicting Caterina Cornaro, Queen of Cyprus as St Catherine of Alexandria wearing a crown after Tintoretto (Jacopo Robusti) in period gilt frame (€700-750)
- 167* An antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting the Virgin with the infant Jesus with St Elizabeth and St John the Baptist (€80-100)
- 168* A fine antique Maltese late 17th Cent olivewood and citrus-wood inlaid bureau bookcase (tal-Bizzilla), the double-domed cabinet mounted with turned finials and ebonised moulding and enclosed by a pair of inlaid doors with medallions of lacework inlay to the centre in a geometric inlay opening to reveal a fitted interior of a central mirrored cupboard flanked by pigeon holes and drawers also inlaid with seaweed medallions on an inlaid slope opening to reveal a

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| fitted interior of drawers and pigeon holes on one shallow and three deep drawers also inlaid with lace medallions, the sides also inlaid in lace work medallions and double stringing throughout on a plinth base raised on six turned bun feet (€65,000-80,000) | clock mounted on an original plinth mounted with a white porcelain Roman numeral dial by Amiet inscribed A Strasbourg from the collection of AIC Louis Busuttil, curator of the Maltese Clock Exhibition of FPM in 1992 (€1000-1200) | carved top rails decorated with carved rose and foliage on a carved back rail on beige-coloured seats on cabriole front legs and sabre-shaped hind legs (€300-400)                      |
| 169* A 1940s Royal Doulton bone china figurine entitled Dinky De (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                  | 177* An oil on board painting depicting a portrait of a middle-aged man wearing round gold spectacles signed E.R Booker dated 1953 (€40-50)                                                                                                 | 184* An antique Maltese mid-19th cent mahogany round centre/dining table, the moulded top on a short frieze on a tapering shaft on a square quadripartite base on splay feet (€350-400) |
| 170* A Royal Doulton bone china figurine entitled Make Believe (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                    | 178* An oil on board painting depicting three figures in fancy dress around a dining table in ornate gilt frame (€40-50)                                                                                                                    | 185* An antique 18th cent Hispano Moresque charger decorated with copper lustre arabesque design (€500-550)                                                                             |
| 171* A hand-painted Capodimonte group representing a lady and a gentleman in 18th cent green attire seated (€20-30)                                                                                                                                               | 179* An antique late Victorian mahogany and inlaid four-tier corner whatnot, the inlaid graduated moulded shelving interspersed by turned uprights and raised on turned legs (€200-250)                                                     | 186* An antique 19th cent Maltese silk lace centrepiece (€40-50)                                                                                                                        |
| 172* A hand-painted Capodimonte group representing a lady and a gentleman in 18th cent seated (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                            | 180* A collection of figurines: a young girl holding a goose, an antique Victorian bisque figure of a child wearing a bonnet, A Capodimonte bust of a young girl on pedestal (€25-30)                                                       | 187* An antique three-piece Indian silver tea service complete with tray having arabesque design throughout (€30-40)                                                                    |
| 173* A pair of 1950s porcelain bookends mounted with figures in 18th cent costume (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                        | 181* A lot of various bone china and bisque figurines and ornaments on bottom two shelves of what-not (€20-30)                                                                                                                              | 188* An antique Victorian and burr walnut mahogany cartouche-shaped occasional table, the inlaid moulded top on a turned shaft raised on carved splay feet (€150-200)                   |
| 174* An antique mid-19th Cent oil on canvas painting depicting a portrait of a young woman wearing a pearl necklace in a roundel by Charles Allingham (1788-1850) in gilt frame (€800-1000)                                                                       | 182* A good quality wool on wool carpet having a Tabriz design of a geometric pattern on a red field (€40-50)                                                                                                                               | 189* An antique Victorian Everard and Colclough Valentia Stone Ware serving dish decorated with transfer flowers and foliage (€30-40)                                            |
| 175* An antique 19th cent oil on canvas painting depicting St Francis Xavier in gilt frame (€100-120)                                                                                                                                                             | 183* A set of four antique 19th cent mahogany salon chairs ( tal-Warda ), the                                                                                                                                                        | 190* A 1960s German green porcelain five-branch chandelier encrusted with delicate flowers and foliage (€100-120)                                                                       |
| 176* An antique 18th cent French Boulle ebonised                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                         |

191* An antique Victorian mahogany round occasional table, the moulded top on a turned shaft carved with acanthus leaves raised on three carved splay feet on plinth bases (€120-150)

197* An antique early 20th cent cranberry glass flower vase raised on a naturalistic wrought-iron stand in the Art Nouveau taste decorated with a miniature of Grandmaster La Valette to the waist (€200-250)

Gozo by Lemaitre in antique mahogany frames (€90-100)

192* An antique 19th cent French gueridon, the round inlaid top decorated with a mother of pearl and rosewood inlaid twisted ribbon border, mounted with a central porcelain plate decorated with an 18th cent lovers' scene supported by three shaped legs mounted with ormolu mounts joined by a turned finial-shaped stretcher (€450-500)

198* An antique Victorian oak-mounted desk stand, mounted with two crystal bottles and pen holder (€35-40)

199* An antique mid-19th cent mahogany sofa table, the pie-crust moulded top with twin flaps on a serpentine-fronted frieze on a carved tapering shaft on a quadripartite base on carved cabriole legs (€800-1000)

205* An antique 19th cent copper ham boiler complete with lid and raised on a wrought-iron base (€100-200)

193* A Silver 800 leaf-shaped chamber candlestick raised on three ball feet (€80-120)

206* Two antique bronze mortar and pestle, one having a Maltese assay mark and a black marble ball (€60-80)

SECOND HALL

194* An antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting the Holy Family in gilt frame school of Francesco Zahra (€2000-2500)

207* An antique late 19th cent gilt French clock, the enamel round Roman numeral dial mounted with a seated female figure of an allegory of bounty on a rocaille base mounted with hand-painted porcelain plaques decorated with delicate flowers and foliage (€250-300)

195* A water-colour on paper painting depicting a view of Valletta from Manoel Island by Charles Palmier (b. 1950) dated 1996 (€40-60)

208* An antique cast bronze sculpture representing Mercury after Gianbologna raised on a round black marble base (€450-500)

196* A pair of antique large urns decorated with miniatures of Classical scenes mounted with twin handles and raised on square bases (€500-600)

209* An antique cast bronze sculpture representing Mercury after Gianbologna raised on a round black marble base (€400-500)

203* A pair of antique mid-19th cent steel engravings entitled Costumes des Femmes de Malte au 18iem Siècles and Habitants de L'Isle de

210* An antique 19th cent Japanese Imari bowl decorated with hand-painted

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| stylised flowers and foliage (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | decorated with carved oak leaves (€40-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | hand-painted flowers and foliage and a silk flower arrangement under glass dome (€100-140)                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 211* An antique Maltese late 19th cent console table complete with matching mirror, the mirror having a carved central scallop cornice on a double-moulded frame and the console table having a white Carrara marble break-front top on a shaped carved frieze of scrolls and foliage on tapering legs joined by a carved under-stretcher (€800-1000) | 218* An antique Victorian mahogany long case clock, the brass and steel dial mounted with the phases of the moon, the swan-neck cornice on a shaped hood mounted with pilasters on a single-door case raised on shaped bracket feet, the dial signed Hadrian Liverpool (€1200-1400) | 226* An antique Vienna pink and white covered jar decorated with hand-painted panels of courting scenes and still lifes of flowers and foliage (€120-140)                                                                                                                          |
| 212* Two antique salt glazed storage jars and another for liquids (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 219* An antique Maltese 19th cent turned church candlestick (€50-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 227* A pair of antique 19th Cent white and gilt French vases decorated with flowers and foliage to the waist (€60-70)                                                                                                                                                              |
| 213* A cast bronze figure of a seated Buddha raised on a stepped plinth (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 220* An antique Victorian walnut and inlaid oval centre table, the carved moulded top inlaid with urns amongst scrolls on four turned uprights on a round vase on four carved splay feet (€400-450)                                                                                 | 228* An antique 19th cent white and gilt French vase having chord-shaped handles with tassels raised on a shaped base (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                     |
| 214* An antique Edwardian mahogany and inlaid round occasional table, the painted frieze decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage on four out-swept legs joined by a shaped under-tier (€180-200)                                                                                                                                              | 221* Four WWII brass bomb shells (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 229* A pair of antique cranberry Victorian lustres mounted with prism drops raised on round bases (€500-550)                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 215* Two antique 19th cent Sicilian maiolica deep bowls having a basket-weave painted decoration to the sides and a stylised palm tree leaf to the base (€120-140)                                                                                                                                                                                    | 222* A collection of WWII brass bomb shells of different sizes (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 230* An antique Maltese late 19th cent chiffonier, the alabaster moulded serpentine-fronted moulded top on a short, moulded frieze on a half-bolt case mounted with turned pilasters and a glazed door and sides on a serpentine moulded plinth base raised on bun feet (€300-350) |
| 216* An oil on canvas painting depicting a lake scene with a cottage in the middle distance in ornate gilt frame (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 223* An oil on canvas painting depicting a still life of Autumn fruit beside a wine bottle in ornate gilt frame (€120-140)                                                                                                                                                          | 231* A pair of antique Victorian figurines representing children in period attire holding spoons in one hand (€50-70)                                                                                                                                                              |
| 217* An antique 19th Cent carved oak barometer mounted with a thermometer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 224* A Capodimonte wall plaque encrusted with flowers and foliage mounted on a mustard velvet plaque (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                       | 232* A pair of 1920s Shelly square-shaped cake                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 225* An antique Victorian French vase having                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

DINING-ROOM

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| plates decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                       | dressed in 18th cent costume (€50-70)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | spade feet joined by stretchers consisting of six chairs and two carvers (€300-350)                                                                                         |
| 233* A Royal Albert Old Rose sandwich plate decorated with roses and foliage (€15-20)                                                                                                                                             | 240* An antique late 19th cent French vase decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist (€30-50)                                                                                                                                                       | 247* An antique early 20th cent mahogany telescopic dining table, the moulded top on a pair of turned pedestals raised on six splay feet ending in brass castors (€300-550) |
| 234* An antique Edwardian English China seven-piece dressing table set decorated with orange roses and foliage consisting of a pair of candlesticks, a pair of covered urn-shaped perfume bottles and three covered jars (€50-70) | 241* A pair of Capodimonte Cesare Villari glazed figures representing allegories of Autumn and Winter (€70-80)                                                                                                                                                         | 248* A pair of oval oil on canvas paintings depicting still lifes of flowers and foliage in a terracotta vase by Frank Borg (1917-2009) in gilt frames (€450-500)           |
| 235* An antique Victorian bisque wall plaque mounted with a relief of a man holding playing cards to his chest in period costume and a pair of bisque figurines representing young children (€20-30)                              | 242* A Capodimonte group representing a young man and woman dressed in 18th cent costume dancing (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                              | 249* An antique early 20 th cent English School water-colour on paper painting depicting a river bank with figures walking and moored boats (€40-50)             |
| 236* A glazed porcelain group representing an 18th cent courting couple dressed in period costume beside a lamb raised on a gilt oval base (€60-80)                                                                               | 243* An antique Edwardian English china oval cake plate, a blue and white tea plate; a china watering can, an antique glass decanter with stopper (a.f), a china table ornament in the shape of flying swallows and a red and white English china butter dish (€20-40) | 250* A linen embroidered table cloth complete with napkins (€10-20)                                                                                                         |
| 237* A Capodimonte glazed porcelain group representing three putti frolicking on a rocaille base encrusted with roses (€60-80)                                                                                                    | 244* An antique early 20th cent Japanese porcelain tea service for four persons decorated with court scenes amongst flowers and foliage (€40-60)                                                                                                                       | 251*                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 238* An antique bisque figurine representing a young child holding a bottle and a pair of resin figures representing putti (€25-35)                                                                                               | 245* A pair of antique bisque figurines representing children wearing hats and period costume (€30-50)                                                                                                                                                                 | 252* A 1940s Japanese tea service for six persons decorated with reliefs of putti to the waist (€30-40)                                                                     |
| 239* A pair of antique Victorian glazed bisque figurines representing children                                                                                                                                                    | 246* A set of eight antique early 20th cent Hepplewhite style dining chairs having interlaced heart-shaped perforated backs on upholstered seats on tapering                                                                                                           | 253* A set of six antique 19th cent French porcelain teacups and saucers having hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist (€30-40)                                      |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 254* An antique porcelain jug decorated with roses and foliage, a Limoges blue and gilt kettle on stand and a Furstenberg white and gilt serving plate (€15-20)             |

|      |                                                                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |      |                                                                                                            |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 255* | A Paragon part tea service decorated with delicate flowers and foliage (€15-20)                                                             | 265* | An antique Sterling silver ointment box having a crystal liner and a repoussé lid (€20-40)                                                                                                                                         | 275* | A pair of Sterling silver candlesticks raised on beaded round bases (€100-120)                             |
| 256* | An antique Sterling silver salt cellar raised on claw feet mounted with a Bristol blue liner (€35-40)                                       | 266* | A Silver 800 oval serving dish having a moulded rim (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                       | 276* | A Sterling silver tall flower spill raised on a round base (€70-100)                                       |
| 257* | A Sterling silver milk jug having a ribbed waist (perforated by a hole at one end) (€40-60)                                                 | 267* | A Sterling silver Ship's inkwell of plain design (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                          | 277* | An antique Turkish silver round serving dish having a moulded rim (€500-600)                               |
| 258* | An antique silver 800 late 19th Cent ice-bucket having a crystal etched liner (€80-100)                                                     | 268* | An antique Sicilian late 19th Cent silver sugar basin, the pansy-shaped finial on a flat domed lid on a bulbous-shaped body having repousse swags of flowers on acanthus-leaves to the base raised on three hoofed feet (€700-900) | 278* | A pair of Sterling silver large candelabra having scroll-shaped arms raised on a fluted shaft (€1000-1400) |
| 259* | A Sterling silver round trinket tray having a pie-crust rim (€50-80)                                                                        | 269* | An antique Maltese silver goblet raised on a trumpet-shaped base (€200-250)                                                                                                                                                        | 279* | An antique Victorian Sterling silver fiddle pattern soup ladle (€250-350)                                  |
| 260* | A Sterling silver round jewel box raised on short feet (€65-80)                                                                             | 270* | A Silver 800 chamber candlestick having a round moulded bowl (damaged) (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                    | 280* | An antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern soup ladle (€300-350)                                   |
| 261* | An antique silver small sugar basin having a fluted body raised on a round base, the domed fluted rim surmounted by a bud finial (€300-350) | 271* | A pair of Sterling silver candlesticks raised on round bases (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                              | 281* | An antique early 19th cent Maltese silver rat-tail soup ladle (€300-350)                                   |
| 262* | An antique Edwardian Sterling silver four-piece tea and coffee service having a fluted body raised on oval bases (€1200-1400)               | 272* | An antique Maltese silver pilgrim flask the body engraved with scrolls and foliage raised on a round base mounted with chains (€100-120)                                                                                           | 282* | An antique Victorian Sterling silver serving spoon (€150-200)                                              |
| 263* | A Maltese silver blotter mounted with a Maltese cross-mounted finial (€80-100)                                                              | 273* | A silver-handled desk bell (€40-60)                                                                                                                                                                                                | 283* | A Maltese silver fiddle pattern sauce ladle (€60-100)                                                      |
| 264* | A Sterling silver round wafer box having hinged lid of plain design (€60-80)                                                                | 274* | A Sterling silver twin-handled tea strainer (€45-60)                                                                                                                                                                               | 284* | An antique early 20th cent silver 800 handled carving set (€30-40)                                         |
|      |                                                                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 285* | A Sterling silver-handled cake palette (€35-40)                                                            |

|      |                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |      |                                                                                                                                               |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 286* | A pair of antique Maltese silver fiddle patterned sugar tongs (€120-140)                                  | Maltese silver fiddle pattern rat tail forks, An antique early 19th cent Oaks period Maltese silver fiddle pattern table fork, An 18th cent Rohan period Maltese silver table fork and an 18th cent Pinto period Maltese silver fork (€120-140) | 306* | Six antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern table spoons (various makers) (€60-80)                                                    |
| 287* | A Sterling silver fiddle pattern toddy ladle (€60-80)                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 307* | Twelve antique Maltese silver fiddle pattern teaspoons (various makers) (€120-140)                                                            |
| 288* | A Sterling silver bottle opener of plain design (€20-30)                                                  | 298* A set of six Sterling silver handled table knives having stainless steel blades (€150-200)                                                                                                                                                 | 308* | An antique Maltese Pinto period silver fiddle pattern teaspoon and two others (€40-50)                                                        |
| 289* | A Sterling silver cheese knife having a stainless-steel blade (€35-45)                                    | 299* A set of six Sterling silver handled dessert knives having stainless steel blades (€150-200)                                                                                                                                               | 309* | A crystal wine glass having an 18ct gold rim (€40-50)                                                                                         |
| 290* | A Sterling silver King's pattern cheese knife having a stainless-steel blade (€25-35)                     | 300* Five antique Maltese silver fiddle pattern teaspoons by Alfredo Vassallo Cremona and another one by Salvatore Naudi (€140-180)                                                                                                             | 310* |                                                                                                                                               |
| 291* | A silver 800 toddy ladle having a scallop-shaped handle (€40-80)                                          | 301* Three antique Maltese silver fiddle pattern dessert forks (various makers) (€70-80)                                                                                                                                                        | 311* | An antique Edwardian glass liquor decanter decorated with hand-painted white foliage and delicate red flowers complete with stopper (€50-100) |
| 292* | A Sterling silver fiddle pattern toddy ladle (€45-60)                                                     | 302* Eleven antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern table spoons by Alfredo Vassallo Cremona (€240-300)                                                                                                                                 | 312* | A set of three Art Deco faceted conical shaped cranberry glass posy holders (€45-65)                                                          |
| 293* | A Sterling silver serving spoon and a butter knife (€50-60)                                               | 303* Eight antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern table spoons (various makers) (€180-220)                                                                                                                                             | 313* | A 1960s glazed ceramic figure of an Egyptian water carrier and a stylised flower vase inscribed V.A.R Cairo 1961 (€25-30)              |
| 294* | Twelve antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern table forks by Alfredo Vassallo Cremona (€260-300) | 304* Six antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern table spoons by Gaetano Pace (€140-180)                                                                                                                                                | 314* |                                                                                                                                               |
| 295* | Eight antique 19th cent Maltese silver fiddle pattern table forks (€200-250)                              | 305* Eight antique 19th Cent Maltese silver table spoons (various makers) (€180-240)                                                                                                                                                            | 315* |                                                                                                                                               |
| 296* | A set of six antique Sterling silver fiddle pattern dessert forks (€140-180)                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 316* |                                                                                                                                               |
| 297* | Four antique early 19th cent Oaks period                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 317* | A 1950s Italian maiolica flower vase in the shape of an open fruit inscribed 81/2 MNC Italy to the base (€40-50)                       |

|      |                                                                                                                                                                               |      |                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 318* | A mid-century modern Rosenthal Keramik globular hand-painted flower vase decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage and another one (€35-45)                      | 327* | A Sterling silver and crystal jam jar (€25-30)                                                | painting depicting a landscape with cottages in the middle distance, the frame inscribed Steyning Sussex signed Harold Goldthwaith (1869-1932) (€200-250) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 319* | A mid-century modern Rosenthal Keramik globular hand-painted squat globular flower vase decorated with hand-painted stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€15-20) | 328* | A Sterling silver cheese knife (€25-30)                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 320* | A set of six antique English China wall plates decorated with ears of corn to the rim and a poppy with ears of corn to the base (€40-50)                                      | 329* | A Sterling silver small dressing table mirror mounted with hanging accoutrements (60-80)      | 340*                                                                                                                                                             | An embroidered linen tablecloth and twelve matching napkins (160cm X-290cm) and an embroidered linen tablecloth and six matching napkins (125cm X 125cm) and a lot of crochet doilies (€40-50)                                                      |
| 321* | A lot of silver plated serving trays and a hand-cut lead crystal tart platter (€30-50)                                                                                        | 330* | A Sterling silver inkwell complete with glass liner (€35-45)                                  | 341*                                                                                                                                                             | A green glass pinecone shaped covered jar raised on a round base (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 322* | A Maltese silver paper knife mounted with a Maltese cross (€45-55)                                                                                                            | 331* | Two Sterling silver round photo frames (€40-50)                                               | 342*                                                                                                                                                             | An antique 19 th cent Boulle mantle clock, the round Roman porcelain Roman numeral dial in a shaped case mounted with a scroll-shaped finial raised on scroll feet (€200-250)                                                            |
| 323* | A Maltese silver fiddle pattern sauce ladle (€60-80)                                                                                                                          | 332* | A Sterling silver milk jug, the waist decorated with reliefs of shells and foliage (€150-180) | 343*                                                                                                                                                             | An antique late 19 th cent metal and green glass oil lamp in the Art Nouveau taste raised on a conical-shaped perforated base with stylised flowers (€40-60)                                                                             |
| 324* | A set of three Maltese silver serving pieces: A butter spreader, a pickle fork and a pickle spoon (€80-100)                                                                   | 333* | A pair of Sterling silver candlesticks raised on a round base (9.5cm) (€40-60)                | 344*                                                                                                                                                             | An antique 19 th cent Japanese Imari cache pot decorated with stylised flowers and foliage raised on a wooden base (€40-50)                                                                                                              |
| 325* | A Maltese silver paper knife mounted with a reproduction Rohan coin surmounted by a Maltese cross (€45-50)                                                                    | 334* | A pair of Sterling silver candlesticks raised on a round base (6.3cm) (a.f) (€15-20)          | 345*                                                                                                                                                             | A Louis XV style bureau abattant, the brown mottled marble top on four inlaid drawers, the second and third opening to a slope fitted with drawers and shelving on a shaped apron on cabriole legs throughout mounted with bronze mounts (€300-350) |
| 326* | A Sterling silver and crystal ash tray (€25-30)                                                                                                                               | 335* | A Maltese silver desk blotter mounted with reproduction coins (€60-80)                        |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                               | 336* | An icon depicting the Virgin and Child having a silver riza (€20-30)                          |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                               | 337* | A large Sterling silver photo frame (€100-120)                                                |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                               | 338* | Two Sterling silver photo frames in boxes (€40-50)                                            |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                               | 339* | An Edwardian English School oil on canvas                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

- 346* An antique 17th Cent Roman School oil on canvas painting depicting a traveller resting with his herd of sheep with a village in the background and a white colt in the foreground (€2000-3000)
- 347* A pair of antique George III mahogany knife boxes, the hinged lid on a serpentine fronted sectioned case (€950-1000)
- 348* A pair of antique late 19th cent white and gilt French vases having silk flower arrangements under glass domes (€300-350)
- 349* A pair of white and gilt German porcelain wall plaques in the Rococo taste encrusted with flowers and foliage (€60-80)
- 350* A pair of Capodimonte figurines representing a lady and a gentleman in 18th cent costume with geese to their feet (€60-80)
- 351* An antique late 19th cent French silver serving dish, the twin handles in the shape of entwined scrolls and foliage on a deep base, the border decorated with repoussé shells and different shapes by Edward, Edward Junior, John & William Barnard, (1089g) (€1900-2100)
- 352* An antique mid-Victorian buffed mahogany sideboard, the moulded top on two short and three long drawers on a pair of single-door cupboards on plinth base (€600-800)
- 353* An antique Victorian walnut sewing table, the cartouche-shaped moulded top opening to reveal a fitted interior on an inlaid frieze and well on a pair of carved and turned uprights joined by a turned under-stretcher on carved splay feet on castors (€400-450)
- 354* A pair of antique Victorian bisque figurines representing a young man and woman, the woman wearing a bonnet and a frilled dress and the man a hat (€120-150)
- 355* A pair of antique Victorian bisque figurines representing a lady and a gentleman in 18th cent costume (€60-80)
- 356* An antique mid-19th cent oil on board painting depicting an elderly seated woman inscribed Bolly Heath aged 108 by B.B. Nadham 1844 in oak frame (€100-120)
- 357* A Victorian column-shaped posy holder decorated with flowers and foliage to the waist (€20-30)
- 358* A hand-cut lead crystal fan-shaped flower vase raised on a round base (€20-35)
- 359* A hand-cut lead crystal large flower vase (€30-40)
- 360* An antique Wallendorf bisque figurine of a young maiden in Classical costume encrusted with flowers and foliage (€50-70)
- 361* Two Japanese eggshell wall plates decorated with ladies dressed in traditional costume (€10-15)
- 362* An antique Victorian oak three-bottle Tantalus having silver plated mounts and lock and three spirit bottles (one replaced) (€60-80)
- 363* An antique Victorian English glazed bisque tree branch candelabra mounted with putti and encrusted with flowers and foliage (€50-70)
- 364* A hand-cut lead crystal hors d'oeuvre dish (€20-30)
- 365* A hand-cut lead crystal hors d'oeuvre dish (€20-30)
- 366* An antique Victorian Tonkin vegetable scallop decorated with transfer flower and foliage (€30-40)
- 367* An antique George III mahogany and inlaid card table, the D-end swivel top on a short line-inlaid frieze on four turned legs (€300-350)
- 368* An antique 19th Cent Famille Jaune wash basin decorated with panels of court scenes and flowers and foliage to the inside (€200-300)
- 369* An oil on canvas painting depicting a still life of flowers and foliage in a glass

- vase beside Autumn fruit and foliage by Frank Borg (1917-2009) in ornate gilt frame (€450-550)
- 370* An oil on board painting depicting a still life of flowers and foliage in a bowl by Candido Giglio (1895-1960) in acanthus leaf frame (€250-300)
- 371* A pair of Capodimonte oval plaques encrusted with Spring flowers and foliage (€80-100)
- 372* A large Victorian Sterling silver large wine ewer, the finial mounted with an anchor, a sail, a shell and a buoy on a baluster-shaped body having chased body decorated with acanthus leaves mounted with a spout in the shape of a shell with a hinged lid and a silver handle mounted with a round base by Edward, Edward Junior, John & William Barnard, London 1845, (1543g) (€2800-3000)
- 373* A William IV Sterling silver hot water pot, the Chinese man-shaped finial on a domed lid decorated with scrolls and foliage mounted with a flower-shaped finial on a tapering conical-shaped body decorated with stylised flowers and foliage mounted with a silver- scroll-shaped handle having bone spacers and a slender spout raised on a round base, Newcastle, 1834 (670g) (€1200-1400)
- 374* An antique George II Sterling silver hot water pot, the domed lid mounted with a cone-shaped finial on a baluster-shaped body mounted with a griffin-shaped spout and a wooden scroll-shaped handle chased with flowers and foliage amongst scrolls raised on a chased base, James Kirkup, Newcastle, 1757, (1183g) (€3000-3500)
- 375* An antique Edwardian Sterling silver kettle on stand, the indented domed lid mounted with a knob finial on a chased body decorated with scrolls and foliage raised on a three-burner stand supported by a separate frame raised on scallop-shaped feet on balls mounted with an ivory-mounted tap (1400g) (€2400-3000)
- 376*
- 377*
- 378*
- 379*
- 380* An antique Maltese silver early 19th cent coffee pot, the domed lid mounted with a knob-shaped finial mounted with leaves on a baluster-shaped body mounted with an ebonised wooden handle and a plain spout raised on a round stepped base, dated 1811 (1059g) (€2400-2600)
- 381* An antique Maltese silver De Rohan period sottocoppa, the shaped circular salver on a central trumpet-shaped fluted base (€4000-4500)
- 382* A pair of Sterling silver candlesticks raised on round stepped bases (€40-50)
- 383* An antique Victorian mahogany credenza, the serpentine-fronted moulded top on a moulded frieze supported by carved corbels of fruit and foliage on a single door mounted with an oval mirror on mirrored sides on a serpentine-fronted plinth base (€500-1000)
- 384* A pair of Chinese cloisonné baluster-shaped flower vases decorated with flowers and foliage (€50-80)
- 385* A 1940s topaz glass lemonade jug with ice compartment (€10-15)
- 386* A mahogany Regency style corner showcase, the moulded cornice on a two-door rounded case mounted with astragal glazing bars on a frieze drawer on a two-door shaped cupboard on plinth base (€300-350)

SECOND DAY OF SALE
MON. 13th JULY 2026
At 4:00p.m.

387* A pair of Capodimonte figurines representing winged putti holding golden goblets (€40-60)

388* A Capodimonte figurine representing a winged putto kneeling and a pair of rose-shaped candlesticks (€15-20)

389* A pair of antique Edwardian English China baluster-shaped flower vases decorated with spring flowers and foliage to the waist (€40-60)

390* An antique Victorian bisque figurine representing a girl holding a basket and a pair of bisque figurines representing putti holding musical instruments (€15-20)

391* A pair of Capodimonte figurines representing putti holding raised on pedestals (€20-40)

392* A Capodimonte baluster-shaped flower vases encrusted with flowers and foliage and a pair of bisque figurines representing putti playing musical instruments (€20-40)

393* A pair of antique Victorian glazed bisque figurines, an antique posy holder mounted with a female figure seated beside a pedestal and a Royal Bavaria China jug decorated with a rose amongst foliage (€15-20)

394* A German porcelain pot pourri covered jar encrusted with roses and foliage (€40-50)

395* A Capodimonte group representing two kingfishers and a 1930s Goebel figure of a pheasant (€20-30)

396* A German Karl Ens porcelain figure representing a bird of song (€30-40)

397* A 1940s Goebel figure of a boy holding a cake with a dog at his feet and a Capodimonte figure representing a winged putto playing the accordion, an antique cobalt blue flower vase and a mouth blown cranberry glass flower vase (€20-30)

398* A hand-painted Moorcroft baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€30-40)

399* An Imperial Tar Symphony posy holder, a Royal Crown Derby pepper pot and salt cellar and an Aynsley Wild Tudor posy holder (€15-20)

400* A Capodimonte figurine representing a soldier in uniform and an antique bisque figure of a boy beside a basket of flowers (€15-20)

401* A 1950s white and gilt hand-painted coffee service for six persons (€20-30)

402* A Limoges serving bowl decorated with

Spring flowers and foliage (€10-15)

403* A 1950s silver overlay amethyst glass covered jar decorated with flowers and foliage (€15-20)

404* A hand-cut lead crystal liquor decanter complete with stopper (€30-40)

405* A hand-cut lead crystal drinks jug and covered jar (€15-20)

406* A hand-cut lead crystal baluster-shaped flower vase (€10-15)

407* A hand-cut lead crystal drinks jug and matching bonbon dish (€10-15)

408* A hand-cut lead crystal liquor decanter complete with stopper (€30-40)

409* A hand-cut lead crystal cruet having a Sterling silver nozzle (€15-20)

410* A lot of assorted antique wall plates (€20-30)

411* A pair of Wedgewood jasper blue heart-shaped trinket trays (€10-15)

412* A Royal Doulton Rose Elegans dinner service for six persons complete with serving plates and vegetable scallop and a matching tea service for six (€100-120)

413* A pair of miniatures depicting ladies in

|                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| period costume in ebonised frames and a pair of wall plaques mounted with figures of a lady and a gentleman in 18 th cent costume (€10-15)        | 424* An antique Silver 800 round centre-piece mounted with a clear crystal glass liner raised on shaped feet (€100-120)                               | 433* An antique 19 th cent Sheffield plate chicken dome (€50-60)                                                                    |
| 414* An antique Anatolian wool on wool hand-knotted carpet, the Herati motif on a multi-coloured field (€400-450)                                     | 425* A set of six antique silver handled table knives having steel handles (€60-80)                                                                   | 434* A Monogram 44-piece stainless steel canteen in box (€25-30)                                                                        |
| 415* A pair of brass and porcelain mounted twin-light wall sconces having frosted glass shades and a matching five- light chandelier in dining room (€30-40) | 426* A 1930s oak twin-flap gateleg occasional table, the moulded top with canted corners on four turned out-swept legs joined by stretchers (€80-100) | 435* A set of 12 good quality Warriss table knives in box (€50-60)                                                                      |
| 416 A Malta lace and linen tablecloth (€140-180)                                                                                                             | 427* A lot of good quality silver plated forks and knives in box (€20-30)                                                                             | 436* A wall-mounted oil lamp complete with glass funnel, an assorted lot of ornaments on shelf and a three-tier wall-mounted shelving (€20-30) |
| 417 A white crochet and white linen tablecloth embellished with embroidered flowers (€40-60)                                                                 | KITCHEN                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                |
| 418 A set of four Malta lace and pale pink linen place mats and four napkins (€40-60)                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                |
| 419* A hand-made Malta lace centrepiece (€100-120)                                                                                                           | 428* A lot of linen tablecloths some hand-embroidered (€30-40)                                                                                        | 437* A lot of silver-plated items in box (€10-20)                                                                                              |
| 420* A lot of Malta lace doilies (€30-40)                                                                                                                    | 429* Three antique framed prints depicting Maltese costumes after Edward Caruana Dingli in frames (€5-10)                                             | 438* A lot of semi-crystal glasses on stems (€10-20)                                                                                           |
| 421*                                                                                                                                                         | 430* A Victorian Style oil on panel painting depicting children in a barn with rabbits in thick fluted frame (€80-100)                                | 439* Two white Pyrex bowls of graduating sizes and a lot of good quality porcelain items on shelf (€10-15)                                     |
| 422* A Malta lace and linen large centre-piece (€60-80)                                                                                                      | 431* Two old brass miniature rocking chairs (€25-30)                                                                                                  | 440* A lot of silver-plated serving trays (€15-20)                                                                                             |
| 423* A Malta lace and linen tea cloth and six matching napkins (€60-80)                                                                                      | 432* A white and gilt French vase mounted with a ganutell flower arrangement under glass dome (€60-80)                                                | 441* A lot of good quality porcelain items in cupboard (€20-30)                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                       | 442* An antique terracotta twin-handled cooking pot and a pan (€30-50)                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                       | 443* An antique twin-handled pitcher (€10-20)                                                                                                  |
|                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                       | 444* Three antique 19 th cent terracotta items; a cooler; a carafe with lid, a                                                      |

|                                                                                                                                         |      |                                                                                                                                                                            |      |                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| cheese dome and a plate (€15-20)                                                                                                        | 456* | A 1960s New World 47 gas cooker (€20-30)                                                                                                                            | 468* | An antique brass mantle clock, the pierced architectural case on a white porcelain Roman numeral dial with visible pendulum (€100-120)                               |
| 445* A Liebherr fridge freezer (€15-20)                                                                                          | 457* | A lot of various place mats in box (€10-20)                                                                                                                                |      |                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 446* Two antique chrome oil lamps and two hurricane lamps (€20-30)                                                                      | 458* | A round mahogany centre table (€30-40)                                                                                                                                     | 469* | A 1970s blue glass large decanter complete with stopper and an amethyst tazza raised on a round base (€30-40)                                                        |
| 447* Two Dewers White Label large bottles (€20-30)                                                                               | 459* | A lot of good quality pots and pans some by Imco (€15-25)                                                                                                           |      |                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 448* A lot of assorted crockery on top of kitchen cupboards (€5-10)                                                                     | 460* | A Magimix 4100 food processor with accoutrements, a boxed Kenwood chopper and a rice cooker (€15-20)                                                                | 470* | A 1970s mahogany showcase, the moulded top on a two-door case, the door mounted with glazing bars on a moulded base on turned legs (€200-250)                        |
| 449* A 1940s KPM Poland porcelain oval serving dish and four matching pickle dishes decorated with spring flowers and foliage (€50-100) | 461* | A lot of crockery in cupboard (€10-15)                                                                                                                                     | 471* | A collection of nine Lladro Christmas tree decorations in boxes (€35-40)                                                                                      |
| 450* An electric kettle jug, Kenwood mixer, a tower steam cooker and wooden breadbin (€10-20)                                           | 462* | A lot of crockery in cupboard (€10-15)                                                                                                                                     | 472* | A Royal Imperial bone china wall plates decorated with wild English wildlife and a matching serving plate decorated with a cottage scene to the base (€10-20) |
| 451* An antique metal hooked door bolt ( stanga ) (€20-30)                                                                       | 463* | A lot of crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                                                                          | 473* | A lot of crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                                                                    |
| 452* A lot of good quality stainless steel cutlery in box, mostly brand new (€30-40)                                                    | 464* | A lot of crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                                                                          | 474* | A lot of crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                                                                    |
| 453* A collection of antique Maltese wicker baskets (€10-20)                                                                            | 465* | A Florentine gilt framed picture of the Ecce Homo (€20-30)                                                                                                          | 475* | A pair of cotton Chintz curtains complete pelmet and a collection of ornaments (€20-30)                                                                              |
| 454* An assorted lot of crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                        | 466* | Three South German terracotta wall plates decorated with reliefs of domestic scenes (€30-40)                                                                               | 476* | A set of four 1940s Maltese school pastel on paper drawings depicting still lifes of fruit and crockery in gilt frame (€80-100)                                      |
| 455* A lot of assorted cutlery in plastic box (€5-10)                                                                                   | 467* | A 19th cent Italian School oil on board painting depicting a city view with a steeple in the background and figures and coaches to the foreground in gilt frame (€200-250) |      |                                                                                                                                                                      |

|      |                                                                                                                                                                   |      |                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 477* | A wrought-iron lamp shade and another (€10-20)                                                                                                                    | 487* | Ten six semi-crystal whiskey glasses decorated with etched wreaths to the rim (€20-30) | decorated with etched wreaths to the rim (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                        |
| 478* | A hand-cut lead crystal flower vase (€10-15)                                                                                                                      | 488* | A hand-cut lead crystal decanter complete with stopper (€30-40)                        | 500* A 1970s Wedgewood Pennine oven to table dinner service for eight persons with extras and serving dishes (€80-100)                                                                                   |
| 479* | Three Ginori wall plates decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€15-20)                                                                                 | 489* | A hand-cut lead crystal drink's jug (€10-15)                                           | 501* An antique Victorian bisque posy holder mounted with a figure of a girl holding a cornucopia (€10-15)                                                                                               |
| 480* | A 1950s Venetian glass table ornament in the shape of a fish having a gilt overlay and hand-painted flowers (€25-30)                                              | 490* | A hand-cut lead crystal fruit bowl raised on short scroll feet (€20-30)                | 502* A modern white and gilt Capodimonte glazed porcelain figure representing a young maiden dressed in classical attire holding a guitar raised on round plinth base (€15-20)                           |
| 481* | An English School oil water-colour on paper painting depicting a still life of autumn fruit laid out on a table signed E. Crevit in stained wooden frame (€30-30) | 491* | A hand-cut lead crystal jam jar complete with lid (€10-15)                             | 503* A pair of modern white and gilt Capodimonte glazed porcelain figures representing young maidens dressed in Classical costume (€30-40)                                                               |
| 482* | A 1960s mahogany dining room suite consisting of a dining-room showcase, a table and six chairs, a sideboard and a side table (€300-350)                          | 492* | A hand-cut lead crystal flower vase (€15-20)                                           | 504* A hand-cut lead crystal large flower vase (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                  |
| 483* | Two white china fluted centre-pieces mounted with two handles (€10-15)                                                                                            | 493* | A hand-cut lead crystal round covered jar (€10-15)                                     | 505* A pair of antique bisque figurines representing a lady and a gentleman in Regency costume (€50-60)                                                                                                  |
| 484* | Two aquamarine-coloured stoneware casseroles (€15-20)                                                                                                             | 494* | A set of six semi-crystal red wine glasses on stems (€15-20)                           | 506* A hand-cut lead crystal flower vase (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                        |
| 485* | A lot of assorted crystal glasses on stems (€10-15)                                                                                                               | 495* | A set of six semi-crystal white wine glasses on stems (€15-20)                         | 507* An antique mahogany card table, the D-end moulded swivel top opening to reveal a baize-lined surface on a shaped frieze mounted with scrolls on tapering octagonal shaft on a carved fluted base on |
| 486* | A set of six semi-crystal saucer champagne glasses on stems decorated with etched wreaths to the rim (€15-20)                                                     | 496* | A set of ten semi-crystal water tumblers (€20-25)                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                   | 497* | A set of eight water tumblers decorated with etched vines to the rim (€10-15)          |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                   | 498* | A lot of assorted crystal glasses on stems (€10-15)                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                   | 499* | A semi-crystal water jug and a wine decanter                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

- a quadripartite base raised on scroll feet (€400-550)
- 508* A stained pine single-door wall-mounted cupboard (€15-20)
- 509* A large good quality Persian design machine-made carpet having a red field (€30-40)
- 510* Six antique Regency dining chairs (€60-80)
- 511* A glazed porcelain white and gilt wall plaque representing the Scared Heart of Jesus (€20-20)
- 512* Ten antique Wood & Sons Yuan wall plates decorated with stylised peacocks amongst vegetation (€25-30)
- 513* A lot of terracotta flower pots in garden (€20-30)
- 517* An antique Victorian porcelain mantle clock decorated with pastoral scenes to the waist (€50-60)
- 518* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany card table, the D-end swivel top on a short frieze on a turned shaft on four carved splay feet (€120-150)
- 519* Four 1960s oval plaques painted on a black background depicting still lifes of flowers and foliage in white porcelain frames (€10-15)
- 520* An antique ILN print depicting a view of The Grand Harbour after J.R. Carmichael (€60-80)
- 521* An antique mid-19th cent English School oil on canvas painting depicting a bust-length portrait of a young gentleman wearing a black overcoat in gilt period frame (€200-250)
- 522* An opaline glass oil lamp having a red glass shade converted to electricity (€20-30)
- 523* A gilt metal dressing table mirror raised on scroll feet (€10-15)
- 524* A pair of antique cranberry glass baluster-shaped flowers vases having fluted rims (€35-50)
- 525* A 1970s Mdina glass flower vase and a Crown Bone China covered butter dish decorated with flowers and foliage (€20-30)
- 526* A Maltese mahogany and inlaid dwarf chest of drawers, the moulded serpentine-fronted top inlaid with Maltese crosses on shaped drawers and inlaid sides on a shaped apron on cabriole legs (€250-300)
- 527* An antique mid-19th cent English School oil on canvas painting depicting a young woman with long hair in gilt frame (€200-250)
- 528* An antique Chinese porcelain flower vase decorated with a burgundy bird resting on a branch (€20-30)
- 529* An antique Victorian teapot decorated with flowers and foliage and an antique bisque figure of a girl with a dog (€25-30)
- 530* A 1930s mahogany salon vitrine the bow-fronted top on a single door shaped case with vertical glazing bars on a moulded frieze on claw and ball feet (€80-100)
- 531* An antique eight-piece Victorian clear and red glass etched dressing table set (€40-50)
- 532* An antique 19th cent French fob watch stand decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€50-60)
- 533* A hand-painted casket-shaped patch box decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€40-50)

LANDING

- 514* A set of eight Maltese late 19th cent mahogany salon side chairs, the balloon-shaped backs with carved back rails on upholstered seats on turned legs on castors (€200-250)
- 515* An antique wall mounted oil lamp wall sconce (€30-40)
- 516* A Spanish porcelain figurine representing a girl with a dog and another (€10-15)

|                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 534*                                                                                 | A Spode                                                                                                                                                                                                          | and engraved by G.N Wright in mahogany frames (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                              | with flowers and foliage (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Blenheim oval trinket tray (€10-15)                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 535*                                                                                 | An antique                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 543* An antique 19th cent English School oil on canvas painting depicting a bust-length portrait of a young girl in walnut and ebonised frame (€300-450)                                                                            | 551* An antique Victorian rosewood card table, the D-end swivel top on a carved frieze on a cylindrical shaft decorated with carved acanthus leaves on a quadripartite base on carved scroll feet (€100-120) |
| Dresden chamber candlestick decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€40-50) |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 536*                                                                                 | A Beswick                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 544* An antique early 20 th cent glass lampshade decorated with hand-painted coastal scene and two bisque figurines (€60-80)                                                                                             | 552* A 1950s Eagle Brand mahogany cased wall clock having a steel Arabic numeral dial with visible pendulum (€40-50)                                                                                  |
| figurine representing a stallion (€40-50)                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 537*                                                                                 | An antique late 19 th cent holy water font mounted with a winged angel holding a shell (€60-80)                                                                                                       | 545* An antique Victorian mahogany and inlaid music cabinet, the moulded and inlaid top with canted corners on a single door and inlaid case on a plinth base with canted corners (€100-150)                                        | 553* An antique mid-19th cent coloured engraving entitled Fort Ricazoli by Le Maitre in gilt frame (€30-40)                                                                                           |
|                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 538*                                                                                 | An antique                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| baluster-shaped flower vase encrusted with flowers and foliage throughout (€40-50)   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 539*                                                                                 | An antique                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 546* A large WWII bomb shell (€50-60)                                                                                                                                                                                               | 554* A pair of antique 19th cent French coloured prints depicting young girls in period gilt frames (€80-100)                                                                                                |
| Victorian flower vase decorated with flowers and foliage to the waist (€30-40)       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 540*                                                                                 | An antique 18th cent engraving depicting the Holy Family, St John the Baptist and St Elizabeth after Raphael engraved by Joannes Emili Rome 1793 and printed by Ralph Morghan in antique mahogany frame (€60-80) | 547* A set of five antique 19th cent steel engravings depicting Maltese views entitled: Cité Valette, Auberge de Castille, Rue St Jean, Rue St Ursule, Palais de Grand Maître by Lemaitre in period walnut frames (€120-140) | 555* A pair of antique 18th cent copper engravings depicting Medieval kings and queens in mahogany frames (€50-100)                                                                                          |
|                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 541*                                                                                 | A pair of antique 19th cent French coloured prints depicting ladies in Oriental costume in period gilt frames (€100-120)                                                                                         | 548* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany frame mounted with a mirror (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                | 556* A pair of Rosenthal Sanssouci wall plates decorated with spring flowers and foliage to the waist (€25-30)                                                                                        |
|                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 542*                                                                                 | A set of four hand-coloured engravings depicting port scenes in France from Shores and Islands of the Mediterranean drawn by Allen                                                                               | 549* A pair of antique Victorian white bisque figures representing a boy and girl dressed in 18 th Cent costume (€60-80)                                                                                                 | 557* A pair of twin light wall sconces (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 550* A Crown bone china centre-piece encrusted                                                                                                                                                                               | 558* An antique mid-19th cent copper engraving depicting a portrait of Mrs Seymour Bathurst after Sir Thomas Lawrence in mahogany frame (€20-30)                                                             |

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 559* | A pair of antique early 20th Cent Satsuma Meiji Period baluster-shaped flower vases decorated with Samurai warriors to the waist (€25-30)                                                                       | Bellanti (1807-1883) in frame (€60-80)                                                                                                                                 | holder in the shape of a Mother and Child (€20-30)                                                                                                                    |
| 560* | A pair of good quality lampshades mounted with figures of a lady and a gentleman in 18 th cent costume (€60-80)                                                                                      | 567* A pair of antique Edwardian English China wall plaques, one depicting Gloucester Cathedral and the other York Cathedral in ornate blue and gilt frames (€200-250) | 576* An antique Maltese mid-19th cent mahogany bow-fronted chest of drawers, the moulded top on two short and three long shaped drawers raised on bun feet (€200-250) |
| 561* | An antique late 19th cent gilt mantle clock, the round Roman numeral porcelain dial mounted with a figure of a boy dressed as a mariner on a rocaille base under glass dome (€250-300)                          | 568* A pair of 1950s Italian porcelain figurines representing a lady and a gentleman in 18 th cent costume (€30-40)                                         | 577* A pair of antique, coloured prints depicting figures in 18 th cent costume in ornate gilt frames (€10-15)                                             |
| 562* | An antique Maltese late 19th cent console table, the grey Carrara serpentine-fronted top on a carved high frieze on four carved uprights of grotesque lion uprights on an under-shelf on scroll feet (€400-450) | 569* A pair of hand-carved Florentine gilt wall sconces decorated with carved scrolls and foliage (€40-60)                                                             | 578* An antique Edwardian framed coloured mezzo tint entitled Lady Upton &amp; Child after Thomas Lawrence by Thomas Smythe in gilt frame (€50-60)             |
| 563* | An oil on canvas painting depicting the man with the Golden Helmet after Rembrandt in gilt frame (€90-100)                                                                                                      | 570* A pair of antique Spode bowls decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€15-20)                                                                                | 579* A pair of antique Victorian opaline glass and gilt metal-mounted twin-handled vases decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist (€100-120)      |
| 564* | A hand-knotted Persian wool on wool saddle bag (€200-250)                                                                                                                                                       | 571* A mahogany-framed Liberty Style mirror having an arched cornice and a bevelled mirror (€40-60)                                                                    | 580* An antique late Victorian English opaline glass baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with a miniature of a young maiden to the waist (€30-40)                   |
| 565* | A turned mahogany stand (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                | 572* An antique late 19th cent French gilt bronze figure of the Immaculate Conception raised on a square-shaped predella mounted with reliefs of the prophets (€60-80) | 581* A lot of assorted bone china trinket trays (€10-15)                                                                                                              |
| 566* | A pair of antique mid-19th cent. coloured lithographs depicting street vendors entitled Carbonaio-Charcoal Seller and Venditrice d'uova-Egg Seller by Michele                                     | 573* Four resin figurines representing putti seated (€10-15)                                                                                                           | 582* A lot of antique blue and white Victorian plates (€10-15)                                                                                                        |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 574* An antique 19th cent Maltese school papier mâché figure of the Redeemer in glass case (€300-400)                                                                  | 583* Two large glazed terracotta cache pots decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€40-50)                                                                      |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 575* A 1960s American white porcelain posy                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                       |

- 584* An antique mid-19th Cent mahogany side table, the bow-fronted moulded top on two shaped short drawers raised on ring turned legs (€140-160)
- 585* A hand-knotted wool on wool Persian saddle bag (€150-200)
- 586* A hand-knotted wool on wool Persian Balouchi rug having a brown field (€250-300)
- 587* Three brass wall plaques decorated with embossed scenes to the base (€15-20)
- 588* A pair of oval oil on canvas paintings depicting still lifes of flowers and foliage in gilt frames (€40-50)
- 589* An antique Victorian gilt salon mirror, the double moulded frame decorated with flowers and foliage (€400-550)
- 590* An antique late 19th cent English School oil on canvas painting depicting a young maiden in country attire in ornate gilt frame (€120-200)
- 591* A 1950s porcelain lampshade the base in the shape of a lady dressed in 18th Cent. costume holding a parasol (€30-40)
- 592* A mixed media on canvas drawing depicting a mother and child signed G. Scicluna (€80-100)
- 593* A German style on stand decorated with acanthus leaves (€100-120)
- 594* A Capodimonte centre-piece in the shape of a basket encrusted with flowers and foliage supported by three putti on a round base also encrusted with flowers and foliage (€60-80)
- 595* A pair of antique Victorian glazed bisque busts representing a boy and girl in winter head gear (€40-50)
- 596* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany chest of drawers, the white Carrara marble moulded top on two short and three long drawers on a plinth base (€140-200)
- 597* An antique Victorian English School oil on canvas painting depicting an interior scene of an elderly lady seated by a window sewing in period gilt frame (€150-200)
- 598* A gold velvet-lined shelving mounted with a central pointed arch mirror and a pair of prints depicting ladies in period costume (€15-20)
- 599* A mahogany wall-mounted barometer in the shape of an anchor (€30-40)
- 600* A pair of oil on canvas oval paintings depicting still lifes of flowers and foliage in ornate gilt frames by Frank Borg (€120-140)
- 601* An antique Maltese carved stone cache pot
- 602* An antique mahogany bureau bookcase, the double-moulded cornice on a two-door case with adjustable shelving, the door decorated with blind fretwork pointed arches on a moulded top on one long drawer opening to reveal a fitted interior of pigeonholes and drawers on two long drawers having carved acanthus leaf corbels raised on claw feet (€600-1000)
- 603* A set of ten antique 19th cent powder blue French porcelain small pharmacy jars complete with labels (€250-300)
- 604* A set of twelve antique 19th cent dark blue French pharmacy jars complete with labels (€350-400)
- 605* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany four-tier whatnot, the moulded serpentine-fronted shelves interspersed by turned uprights on turned legs (€180-240)
- 606* A 1960s Villa Bologna flower vase decorated with hand-painted blue flowers and foliage (€50-60)
- 607* A 1960s Italian china flower vase in the Etruscan taste decorated with silhouettes to the waist (€30-40)
- 608* A blue and white comport decorated with blue flowers and a sauce boat (€10-15)

|                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                            |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 609*                | An antique turned wood church candlestick (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 617* | Two machine-made carpets (€10-20)                                                                                                                                                        | rocaille base raised on an ebonised plinth mounted with music box (€100-120) |                                                                                                                                                            |
| 610*                | An early 20th cent mahogany card table, the plain top covering a green leather-mounted top with brass ash tray mounts on a frieze drawer to each corner on inward turned shaped club feet (€120-140)                                                        | 618* | Two antique framed oleographs depicting the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary (€50-100)                                                                                                     | 626*                                                                         | An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany chest of drawers, the grey marble moulded top on two short and three long drawers raised on bun feet (€300-400) |
| 611*                | A hand-knotted wool on wool Persian Afghan Belouch Heriz carpet having a burgundy and blue field (200cm X 100cm) (€350-400)                                                                                                                                 | 619* | An antique engraving depicting the face of Christ with seal and authentication to recto, dated 1925 (€25-30)                                                                             | 627*                                                                         | A 1960s Capodimonte wall plaque representing an angel holding a lantern (€10-15)                                                                           |
| 612*                | A white china square-shaped cache pot (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 620* | A Capodimonte figure of a tramp seated on a bench (€5-10)                                                                                                                                | 628*                                                                         | A brass four-leaf fire screen (€40-50)                                                                                                                     |
| MAIN BEDROOM |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 621* | An antique 19th cent Maltese mahogany chest of drawers of small proportions, the moulded top on two short and three long drawers raised on four turned bun feet (€200-400)               | 629*                                                                         | A Corby mahogany electric valet (€40-50)                                                                                                            |
| 613*                | An antique oleograph depicting the crucifixion and a framed lithograph depicting Christ with the children (€20-30)                                                                                                                                          | 622* | An antique 1930s Art Deco folding screen (€60-80)                                                                                                                                        | 630*                                                                         | A 1940s suitcase and a three panelled bevelled mirror (€20-30)                                                                                             |
| 614*                | A pair of 1950s Italian flower vases (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 623* | An antique 19th cent Maltese mahogany two-door wardrobe, the moulded cornice on a two-door panelled case on two short and one long drawer (€200-250)                                     | 631*                                                                         | A Florentine gilt icon representing the Flight to Egypt after Giotto (€20-30)                                                                              |
| 615*                | An antique 19th cent spelter mantle clock mounted with a figure of a gentleman dressed in 18th cent costume with a cello to his feet having a round Roman numeral porcelain dial in a rocaille case, an antique spelter figure and a baluster vase (€60-70) | 624* | A pair of antique 19th cent baluster-shaped pink painted opaline glass flower vases having fluted rims (€80-100)                                                                         | 632*                                                                         | An antique wrought-iron and crystal mounted hall lantern (€20-30)                                                                                          |
| 616*                | A 1930s mahogany gentleman's compactum of small proportions (€50-60)                                                                                                                                                                                        | 625* | An antique 19th Cent French mantle clock (Tal-Fenek), the round Roman porcelain dial surmounted by a figure of a hunter holding a rabbit in one hand and a hunting gun in the other on a | 633*                                                                         | A carved mahogany console table having a marble top and a matching mirror (€20-50)                                                                         |
|                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                                                                                          | 634*                                                                         | Two plastic stools (€5-10)                                                                                                                                 |
|                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                                                                                                          | 635*                                                                         | A 1950s English mahogany bedside table raised on club feet (€20-30)                                                                                        |

|      |                                                                                                                                 |      |                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                       |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 636* | A 1950s English mahogany double bed (€30-40)                                                                                    | 648* | An antique oil on canvas oval painting depicting Madonna della Seggiola after Raphael (€60-80)       | arched cornice supported by two drawers on a grey marble inset top on one long drawer on turned uprights joined by an under tier raised on bun feet (€150-200) |                                                                                                                                                       |
| 637* | An oil on canvas painting depicting the Virgin and the Child Jesus and other children in gilt frame, signed P. Grech (€100-200) | 649* | A lot of Sterling silver and silver-plated dressing table sets (€40-50)                              | 658*                                                                                                                                                           | An antique engraving depicting the Face of Christ in ebonised frame (€20-30)                                                                          |
| 638* | A framed print of the Sacred Heart and an oil on canvas painting depicting the Sacred Heart of Jesus (€10-20)                   | 650* | A Joinwell G-plan mahogany floor lamp shade (€50-60)                                                 | 659*                                                                                                                                                           | A box of assorted brass items in box (€15-20)                                                                                                         |
| 639* | Five Gozo weave sheep's wool carpets (€50-60)                                                                                   | 651* | An antique 19th cent engraving depicting the Virgin of Mount Carmel in ebonised frame (€25-30)       | 660*                                                                                                                                                           | An antique framed engraving depicting Penelope Countess of Vigonier in gilt frame and a framed inscription Verbum Dei Caro Factum Est (€10-20) |
| 640* | A bundle of brand-new bed sheets (€20-30)                                                                                       | 652* | An antique French 19 th cent coloured engraving depicting St. Paul in gilt frame (€20-30) | 661*                                                                                                                                                           | An antique Spanish gesso bust of the Ecce Homo raised on a marbleised plinth (€60-80)                                                                 |
| 641* | A bundle of brand-new bed sheets (€20-30)                                                                                       | 653* | A lot of assorted ornaments and crockery in box (€10-15)                                             | 662*                                                                                                                                                           | A blue and white oval mirror encrusted with flowers and foliage to the frame (€30-40)                                                                 |
| 642* | A bundle of bedspreads (€20-30)                                                                                                 | 654* | A boxed Sterling silver four-piece dressing table set (€80-100)                                      | 663*                                                                                                                                                           | A 1940s wax bambino seated, dressed in a white tunic in glass case (€140-160)                                                                         |
| 643* | A bundle of lamb's skin rugs (€50-60)                                                                                           | 655* | A boxed Sterling silver four-piece dressing table set (€80-100)                                      | 664*                                                                                                                                                           | A pair of antique 19th cent turned brass candlesticks mounted on an octagonal base (€30-40)                                                           |
| 644* | A bundle of cotton chintz curtain fabric (€20-30)                                                                               | 656* | A five-piece Sterling silver dressing table set in case (M) (€80-100)                                | 665*                                                                                                                                                           | An antique Regency mahogany bow fronted chest drawers on out swept feet (€150-180)                                                                    |
| 645* | A bundle of various material lengths (€20-30)                                                                                   | 657* | A print on wood depicting winged angels playing musical instruments (€20-30)                         |                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                       |
| 646* | Three 1960s good quality Chinese cut carpets having a cream background (€40-50)                                                 | 658* | An antique 19th cent mahogany dressing table, the swing mirrored super-structure having a carved     |                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                       |
| 647* | A 1950s Polaris 15-day mahogany cased wall clock having a steel Arabic numeral dial with visible pendulum (€40-50)       |      |                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                       |

- 666* A 1950s oval mirror having bow-shaped cresting (€30-40)
- 667* A fox fur collar (€60-80)
- 668* An antique cut glass pyramid-shaped hanging light (€40-80)
- 669* An antique lithograph depicting the Virgin and Child in gilt frame (€25-30)
- 670* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany-framed oval mirror having a carved floral motif (€40-60)
- 671* An antique Victorian five-piece toilet set consisting of a toilet jug and basin, a chamber pot, bath salts jar and a soap dish (€50-60)
- 672* An antique Maltese mahogany washstand, the cartouche-shaped inset grey Carrara marble top having a raised superstructure on a faux plinth drawer raised on turned legs joined by a shaped under-tier (€100-150)
- 673* An antique white ceramic chamber pot with bucket (€25-30)
- 674* An antique Victorian green and gilt toilet set (€20-30)
- 675* A pair of modern bronze lampshades having frosted glass shades (€50-60)
- 676* An antique mid-19th cent Maltese round centre table, the moulded top on an octagonal tapering shaft on quadripartite base raised on bun feet (€350-500)
- 677* An antique late 19th cent four-piece toilet set consisting of a jug and basin, a chamber pot and a bath salts jar decorated with wreaths of roses and foliage tied up with blue bow to the waist (€80-100)
- 678* Four antique 19th cent large cooking pots (€70-80)
- 679* Two antique Victorian toilet jugs (€20-30)
- 680* A mahogany low ladder-back chair having a cane seat (€40-60)
- 681* An antique late 19th cent ash low Windsor armchair having a cane seat and raised on turned legs jointed by H-shaped stretcher (€40-60)
- 682* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany armchair, the carved top rail decorated with a central scallop trailing to carved foliage on an upholstered back trailing to carved and upholstered armrests on an upholstered seat on carved legs (€200-250)

THIRD DAY OF SALE
TUE. 14TH JULY 2026
At 4:00p.m.

DRAWING-ROOM

- 683* An antique mid-19th cent engraving depicting a view of the Grand Harbour after JWM Turner and a view of Gozo entitled Frammenti trovati nella Torre dei Giganti in ebonised frame (€30-40)
- 684* An antique mid-19th cent engraving depicting Palazzo Falzon entitled Maison des Grand Maitres a Malta drawn by Gaucherel and engraved by Le Maitre in ebonised frame (€30-40)
- 685* A hand-coloured antique mid-19th cent engraving depicting a view of the Grand Harbour after JWM Turner in ebonised frame (€25-30)
- 686* A pair of antique Victorian oval gilt salon mirrors decorated with cresting to the top and sprays of flowers and foliage to the base (€120-140)
- 687* An antique Victorian oil on canvas painting depicting a wooded scene in ornate gilt frame by Alfred De Breanski (1877-1957), the frame inscribed HWFA Williams Esq. (€600-800)
- 688* A pair of antique Palmyra wall plates decorated with flowers and foliage (€20-30)
- 689* An antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting the entombment with the Virgin holding the dead Christ to the middle surrounded by St John and Mary Magdalene and winged angels and an open tomb to one side in period gilt frame (possibly a sopra quadro) (€1700-1800)
- 690* A hand-cut lead crystal flower vase (€15-20)
- 691* A Beswick bone china figurine representing a lady dressed in riding attire riding a horse (€150-180)
- 692* A 1950s hand-painted Meissen desk set consisting of a pen/cigar holder, a covered box, an ash tray complete with tray decorated with a green dragon design (€480-550)
- 693* An antique 19th cent bronze oil lamp mounted with a figure of a putto holding the well raised on a red marble base having an etched glass shade (€150-180)
- 694* An Art Deco brass desk lamp having a frosted shade (€95-120)
- 695* An antique large French vase mounted with two handles and decorated with flowers and foliage to the waist (120-250)
- 696* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany chest of drawers, the grey marble moulded top on two short and three long drawers raised on bun feet (€400-450)
- 697* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany sitting-room suite, the shaped scroll back on a bobbin-mounted back on upholstered seats upholstered in green material on cabriole legs consisting of six salon chairs and two matching armchairs (€250-400)
- 698* An antique 18th cent Maltese school carved wood statue representing the Immaculate Conception raised on a plinth base (€1600-1800)
- 699* An antique 19th Cent mahogany corner stand, the moulded white Carrara marble top on a moulded frieze on turned uprights interspersed by a moulded shelving raised on turned feet (€300-350)
- 700* A German Karl Ens porcelain figure representing a bird of song (€30-40)
- 701* A pair of antique bisque figurines representing children seated (€30-50)
- 702* A porcelain coffee grinder decorated with spring flowers and foliage to the waist having a brass mechanism (€120-140)
- 703* A 1950s Italian pink china baluster-shaped flower decorated with stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€15-20)

704* An antique 18th Cent Italian School oil on canvas painting depicting an extensive landscape with a lake in the background, mountains to one side and trees to the other side in gilt acanthus leaf frame (€1300-1400)

705* A collection of ten English china Lord Nelson pottery wall plates decorated with the Tree of life (€40-50)

706* A pair of antique ebonised and gilt oval salon mirrors having a Greek key design to the frame (€120-150)

707* A German Karl Ens porcelain figure representing a long-haired Dachshund seated (€280-350)

708* A hand-cut lead crystal square-shaped hors d'oeuvre dish (€10-15)

709* A 1970s Royal Dux white porcelain figurine representing a cat designed by Jaroslav Jezek (€95-120)

710* A Hollahaza hand-painted figurine representing a seated collie (€95-100)

711* A lead crystal covered jar (€10-15)

712* An antique 19th cent Napoleon III ebonised and inlaid walnut side table, the twin-flap brass mounted top inlaid with trophies amongst flowers and foliage on a frieze drawer mounted with brass mounts on cabriole legs

mounted with sabots (€900-1000)

713* An antique Urbino maiolica wall plate decorated with a hand-painted mythological scene to the centre, the rim decorated with putti amongst scrolls and foliage (€800-900)

714* An antique boulle cut brass and tortoise-shell mantle clock, the architectural case mounted with ormolu finials on a Roman numeral porcelain-mounted round dial with visible pendulum raised on cone-shaped ormolu feet (€800-900)

715* An antique Chinese cloisonné incense burner decorated with Egyptian motifs to the waist and mounted with a cast Fu dog to the lid raised on scroll feet (€350-450)

716* A cloisonné round storage jar decorated with flowers and foliage throughout (€280-350)

717* A Herend porcelain figure representing a mother and child under glass dome (€250-300)

718* A reproduction Louis XV style salon showcase, the high frieze mounted with beading and gilt mounts on a single-door case and bombé sides on a shaped apron on cabriole legs (€300-350)

COINS & JEWELLERY

719* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM50 1975 (1) (15g) (€1800-2000)

720* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM20 1976 (2) (6g) (€800-1000)

721* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM20 1975 (3) (6g) (€800-1000)

722* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM10 1973 (4) (3g) (€350-400)

723* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM10 1975 (5) (3g) (€350-400)

724* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM5 1972 (6) (3g) (€350-400)

725* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM10 1974 (7) (3g) (€350-400)

726* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM10 1975 (8) (3g) (€350-400)

727* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM10 1976 (9) (3g) (€350-400)

728* CBOM 22ct three-coin proof set 1977 LM100, LM50, LM25 (11) (€7500-8000)

729* CBOM 22ct gold coin LM20 1975 (12) (6g) (€800-1000)

|      |                                                                                                                                            |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 730* | A fine Emanuel Pinto 20 Scudi coin 1764 (13) (€4500-5000)                                                                                  | 741*  | A Vogue wristwatch (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                              | with mountains in the background in period gilt frame (€2000-2500) |                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 731* | A lot of coins in bag (€40-50)                                                                                                             | 742*  | A fine antique early 19 th cent seed pearl sautoir suspending a tassel mounted with diamonds and rubies (€5500-6000)                                                                                 | 748*                                                               | A pair of antique cranberry Victorian lustres mounted with prism drops raised on round bases (€300-350)                                                                      |
| 732* | A lot of coins in bag (€60-80)                                                                                                             | 743*  | An antique seed pearl hair ornament in the shape of a spray of flowers and foliage (€400-450)                                                                                                                   | 749*                                                               | An antique 19 th Cent Sicilian maiolica hand warmer in the shape of a fish (€200-300)                                                                             |
| 733* | A lot of Victorian silver coins in bag (€40-50)                                                                                            | 744*  | An antique early 19 th Cent seed pearl mounted on mother of pearl collier (€700-1000)                                                                                                                | 750*                                                               | An antique 19 th Cent Sicilian maiolica hand warmer in the shape of a cat (€200-300)                                                                              |
| 734* | A collection of seven George V and Queen Victoria I half crowns (€100-120)                                                                 | 745*  | An antique 18ct Langendof Swiss 7J fob watch (€100-120)                                                                                                                                                  | 751*                                                               | An antique 19 th Cent Sicilian maiolica hand warmer in the shape of a tortoise (€200-300)                                                                         |
| 735* | A collection of six pence coins Queen Victoria, Edward VII, George V and George VI (€100-120)                                              | 746*  | A boxed Order of Merit of Malta medal and miniature medal complete with hinged lid (€60-80)                                                                                                                     | 752*                                                               | An antique 19 th cent tortoiseshell and brass inlaid Boulle card table, the serpentine-fronted folding top on a short frieze raised on cabriole legs (€1600-1800) |
| 736* | An antique 19 th cent hand-painted miniature depicting a young girl with her dog (€50-80)                                       | 746A* | A pair of 18ct white gold pair of solitaire earrings mounted each with 0.52cts brilliant cut internally flawless diamonds, rare white colour (E-F) (€1650-1800)                                                 | 753*                                                               | A French 19 th cent Gien maiolica baluster-shaped table lamp decorated with fountain-shaped trophies with flying putti raised on a brass base (€900-1000)  |
| 737* | A set of three antique 18ct gold studs (€400-450)                                                                                          | 746B* | An 18ct white gold diamond ring, the 0.90cts brilliant cut central stone, internally flawless, rare white colour (E-F) mounted with baguette diamonds to the side 0.30cts both internally flawless (€6000-6500) | 754*                                                               | A mahogany Regency style torchière, the pie-crust top on a slender shaft on three splay feet (€50-80)                                                                        |
| 738* | An antique silver filigree brooch mounted with a miniature of the Virgin and Child after La Madonna Della Seggiola after Raphael (€80-100) | 747*  | An antique 18 th cent Roman School oil on canvas painting depicting a rural landscape with a waterfall in the middle distance and figures of bathers and anglers                                     | 755*                                                               | A Victorian style convex mirror having a gilt frame decorated with scrolls and foliage (€40-60)                                                                              |
| 739* | An 18ct gold stick pin mounted with a cushion-cut topaz (Mon) (€350-400)                                                                   |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 740* | A Continental lady's wristwatch (€50-60)                                                                                            |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                              |

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 756* | An antique early 19 th cent oil on canvas painting depicting the Virgin holding flowers and foliage in her arms in gilt frame (€800-1000)                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 763* | An antique early 19 th cent oil on canvas painting depicting the Infant Child Jesus sleeping on a cross and holding a wreath of thorns in one hand in ornate gilt frame (€2800-300) | and inlaid chest of drawers, the moulded top on three long drawers raised on cabriole legs (€1800-2000)                                                                                                           |
| 757* | A 1940s Herend white porcelain figure representing the risen Christ designed by Janos Horvai (1874-1947) (€200-250)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 764* | A lithograph entitled Porta Reale after C. F Brockdorff in mahogany and gilt frame (€60-80)                                                                                             | 773* An antique 18 th cent Spanish School oil on canvas painting depicting the Holy Family in period gilt frame (€600-650)                                                                             |
| 758* | An Art Deco Herend white porcelain figure representing the Virgin designed by Janos Horvai (1874-1947) (€200-250)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 765* | A Herend Queen Victoria cache pot decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage and butterflies (€250-300)                                                                            | 774* A pair of oil on canvas paintings depicting Neapolitan street scenes with figures in traditional costume by Judge Luigi Camilleri in acanthus leaf frames (€120-140)                                         |
| 759* | An antique 18 th cent Italian walnut kneeler, the moulded shaped arm rest on an inlaid back panel supported by scroll-shaped supports on a hinged and moulded base on an inlaid frieze, throughout inlaid with elegant scrolls (€600-700)                                                                                                               | 766* | A Herend Queen Victoria baluster-shaped vase decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage and butterflies (€150-200)                                                                 | 775* An assorted lot of ornaments and crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                    |
| 760* | A pair of cotton Chintz floral curtains (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 767* | An Art Deco Schaubach Kunst porcelain figurine representing a bather (€120-150)                                                                                                         | 776* An antique mid-19 th Century gilt salon mirror, the cornice decorated with a carved central scallop trailing to scrolls and foliage on a triple-moulded frame (€800-900)                          |
| 761* | An antique Maltese late 18 th cent Rohan period walnut Louis XV style drawing-room suite consisting of a sofa and four armchairs, the carved camel-back top rails decorated with flowers and foliage on a cane back and seat trailing to carved arm rests on a carved cane seat also decorated with flowers and foliage on cabriole legs (€6,000-8,000) | 768* | An antique French Art Deco adjustable copper table lamp having a frosted glass shade (€190-200)                                                                                                | 777* A Royal Dux porcelain large figure representing a young woman in country attire filling a pitcher from a spring (€450-550)                                                                            |
| 762* | A 1930s machine-made chenille table carpet having a Persian design (€150-180)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 769* | A hand-cut lead crystal covered jar (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                   | 778* An antique 19 th Cent gilt mantle clock, the round porcelain Roman numeral dial mounted with a lady dressed in 18 th cent costume beside a lamb on a rocaille base (€700-900)          |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 770* | A pair of antique Victorian bisque figurines representing swans (€15-20)                                                                                                                       | 779* An antique 19 th cent Maltese mahogany console table, the moulded serpentine-fronted top on a high moulded frieze on a carved apron decorated with carved scrolls and foliage on carved grotesque |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 771* | An antique 19 th cent Japanese Imari bowl decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€30-40)                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 772* | An antique Maltese 18 th cent olivewood                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| lion-head shaped legs joined by an under-tier on scroll-carved feet (€150-250) | marquetry top on a short frieze on a turned shaft on three splay feet (€400-450)                                                                                                                                                      | 796* | A pair of brass twin-light wall sconces (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 780*                                                                           | An antique 19 th cent carved wood group representing the crucifixion with the Virgin and St John under glass dome (€180-200)                                                                                               | 788* | An antique Maltese late 19 th cent mahogany centre table ( tal-Biskuttin ), the cartouche-shaped top on a moulded frieze on a carved and turned shaft decorated with acanthus leaves on carved splay feet mounted with carved lion heads (€800-1000) |
| 781*                                                                           | A Herend polychromised figurine representing a young man dressed in country attire (€380-400)                                                                                                                                  | 789* | An antique 19 th cent Austro Hungarian M1895 bayonet complete with scabbard, strap and tassel (€250-300)                                                                                                                                                    |
| 782*                                                                           | An early 20 th cent brass adjustable table lamp having a frosted glass shade (€210-250)                                                                                                                                    | 790* | An antique mid-19 th cent casket-shaped jewel box having a chequered lid (€70-80)                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 783*                                                                           | An antique mid-19 th cent brass Biedermeier coffee grinder (€350-400)                                                                                                                                                      | 791* | An antique mid-19 th cent sarcophagus-shaped tea caddy having an inlaid lid (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 784*                                                                           | An antique early 19 th cent oil on canvas painting depicting the Immaculate Conception in period triple-moulded frame (€800-900)                                                                                           | 792* | An antique 19 th cent Imari cabinet plate decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                              |
| 785*                                                                           | A North African wool on wool hand-knotted carpet having amber-coloured foliage (€100-120)                                                                                                                                             | 793* | A Herend hand-painted white porcelain figure representing a donkey (€250-300)                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 786*                                                                           | A set of five Maltese late 19 th cent mahogany salon side chairs, the carved top rails decorated with shells amongst foliage on balloon-shaped backs with carved back rails on upholstered seats on turned legs (€200-250) | 794* | A Joinwell Reprodux nest of three tables, the moulded tops on four slender uprights joined by stretchers (€60-80)                                                                                                                                        |
| 787*                                                                           | An antique late 19 th cent mahogany and inlaid Sorrento table, the round                                                                                                                                                   | 795* | Two antique Victorian blue and white wall plates (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| STUDY                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 797* | An antique early 20 th cent English School oil on canvas painting depicting a still life of flowers in a vase in ornate gilt frame (€120-130)                                                                                                               |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 798* | A Japanese satsuma figure of a falcon (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 799* | An antique Richards soup tureen decorated with blue flowers and foliage (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 800* | Three 1960s Royal Porcelain flower vases decorated with a yellow rose to the waist on a black background (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 801* | An antique Edwardian mahogany chest of drawers, the moulded top on two short and one long drawer on tapering legs (€80-100)                                                                                                                                            |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 802* | A hand-cut lead crystal flower vase (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 803* | A stained four-tier corner what-not having a galleried top on four graduated shelves interspersed by turned uprights (€50-80)                                                                                                                                          |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 804* | An antique brass-mounted wall clock (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 805* | A collection of antique 19 th cent mourning                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| letter-writing papers in box (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                     | 812* A pair of 1960s Florentine gilt lampshades raised on square bases (€50-80)                                                                                                                                                                                           | whatnot, the fretwork gallery on four serpentine-fronted moulded graduated shelves interspersed by turned uprights raised on turned feet (€100-140) |
| 806* A stained pine wall-mounted showcase mounted with a drawer (€40-50)                                                                                                                                  | 813* A pair of large bisque piano babies dressed in blue and pink dresses frolicking on their backs (€250-300)                                                                                                                                                            | 820* A collection of various ornaments on whatnot (€10-20)                                                                                          |
| 807* An antique early 20th cent coloured print depicting a young boy blowing soap bubbles holding a pipe in one hand and a basin in the other in oak and gilt frame (€30-40)                              | 814* An antique 19th cent Continental piano baby wearing a bonnet and lying on his back playing with his toes (€250-300)                                                                                                                                                  | 821* A wall-mounted mahogany hanging showcase having bombé glass sides and glass shelving (€50-80)                                                  |
| 808* A pair of antique mid-19th cent. coloured lithographs depicting street vendors entitled Aquaiolo-Water Seller and Pollaiuolo-Poulter by Michele Bellanti (1807-1883) in frame (€60-80) | 815* An antique 19th cent Maltese mahogany console table, the moulded serpentine-fronted top on a high moulded frieze on a carved apron decorated with carved scrolls and foliage on carved caryatid-shaped legs joined by an under-tier on scroll-carved feet (€150-200) | 822* An antique 19th cent bisque piano baby seated holding an apple (€150-180)                                                                      |
| 809* A pair of antique 19th cent Maltese mahogany side chairs, the balloon-back having carved back rail on red damask upholstered seats on cabriole legs (€120-140)                                       | 816* A gesso figure of the Immaculate Conception (€45-50)                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 823* A pair of antique 19th cent bisque piano babies seated with hands in the air (€240-260)                                                        |
| 810* An antique French 19th cent Napoleon III Boulle ebonised and gilt salon mirror, the thick frame decorated with gilt flowers, scrolls and foliage (€500-600)                                          | 817* A 1940s oak-cased Gents of Leicester electric pulse wall clock having a visible pendulum (from the collection of AIC Louis Busuttil, curator of the Maltese Clock Exhibition of FPM in 1992) (€200-250)                                                       | 824* A pair of antique 19th cent continental bisque piano baby crawling (€200-250)                                                                  |
| 811* An antique late 19th cent American steeple clock, the round Roman numeral dial on a twin-train movement with visible pendulum behind a painted glass case raised on plinth base (€90-100)            | 818* A pair of antique 19th cent French lithographs depicting church interiors in Palermo entitled Chiesa della Compagnia di San Lorenzo and Chiesa sotteranea di San Giorgio in mahogany and gilt frames (€25-30)                                          | 825* Three small bisque piano babies in different postures (recent manufacture) (€40-60)                                                            |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 819* An antique late 19th cent mahogany corner                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 826* Three small bisque piano baby girls in different postures (recent manufacture) (€40-60)                                                        |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 827* An antique 19th cent continental bisque piano baby crawling (€200-250)                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 828* An antique 19th cent continental bisque piano baby crawling (€200-250)                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 829* A pair of antique piano babies seated,                                                                                                         |

|                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| one with his hands in the air(€35-40)                                                                                                                                                | 841* Two pairs ofcurtains (€10-15)                                                                                                                                     | 851* An antiqueVictorian style mahogany what-not, the scroll cut fretworkgallery on a moulded shelf onshaped and perforated supportson a further shaped andmoulded shelving on a friezedrawer on short turned legs oncastors (€300-350) |
| 830* A whiteporcelain octagonal cache pot(€30-40)                                                                                                                                | 842* An early 20thcent. coloured print entitled TheFruits of Early Industry &amp;Economy after Morland inebonised and gilt frame (€20-30)         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 831* An opaline glassoil lamp complete with shadeand funnel (€10-15)                                                                                                             | 843* An antique1930s Maltese School oil oncanvas painting depicting ashepherdess with her flock atdawn by Maria Cali' Corleo(1884-1947) (€200-250)     | 852* Three antiqueblue and white plates decoratedwith pagoda scenes to the base(€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 832* A Rolleiflex 35FVintage TLR camera (€600-800)                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                            | 853* Two photoalbums (€5-10)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 833* A 1960s KodakInstamatic camera (€10-15)                                                                                                                                         | 844* An antiqueVictorian English school sepiawater-colour on paper paintingdepicting a cartoon ofgentlemen dressed in periodattire in frame (€120-140) | 854* An antiqueMaltese late 19th centmahogany library bookcase, thetriple-moulded top on a two-door case with carved scrolldecoration to the top corners ontwo long drawers raised on bunfeet (€400-450)                                    |
| 834* An Olympus FE320 camera in box (€20-30)                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 835* A carved woodVintage sleeping buddha (€35-40)                                                                                                                               | 845* A 1960swrought-iron floor lamp (€35-40)                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 836* An antiqueEdwardian stereoscopecomplete with a collection ofphotos of USA (€60-80)                                                                                      | 846* An antique 19thcent mahogany-cased Americanclock (€80-100)                                                                                                    | 855* An antiqueSinger table-top sewingmachine in case (€50-80)                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 837* An antiqueVictorian mahogany desk letterholder (€45-50)                                                                                                                     | 847* A perpetualmotion clock under glass dome(€25-30)                                                                                                              | 856* A 1960s sewingmachine in cabinet (€50-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 838* A brass finishbanker's lamp having a greenshade (€150-180)                                                                                                                  | 848* A pair of hand-cut lead crystal flower vaseshaving intricate cut design (€30-40)                                                                          | 857* A machine-made carpet and another (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 839* A 1920sJapanese lacquer desk box (€15-20)                                                                                                                                   | 849* A hand-cut leadcrystal bowl raised on scrollfeet (€10-15)                                                                                                     | 858* A pair of 1960sCapodimonte wall platesdecorated with reliefs of puttiamongst scrolls and foliage(€20-30)                                                                                                                                           |
| 840* An antique 19thcent mahogany double pedestaldesk, the moulded top on a pairof pedestals with four drawersand pull-out extension raisedon plinth base (€250-300) | 850* A hand-cut leadcrystal globular-shaped vase(€10-15)                                                                                                           | 859* A largeVictorian blue and whiteserving dish decorated withtransfer flowers and foliage(€30-40)                                                                                                                                                     |

860* An antique mid-19th cent mahogany writing table, the moulded twin-flap top on two short frieze drawers raised on turned legs on castors (€200-250)

861* A pair of antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany side chairs, the balloon backs with carved top rails on upholstered seats on cabriole legs (€100-150)

MELITENSIA

862* Frendo H., Europe and the Empire, Malta, 2012 (€40-50)

863* Mizzi E., Malta in the making 1962-1987, Malta, 1995 (€100-120)

864* Frendo H., The Origins of Maltese Statehood, Malta, 1999 (€50-60)

865* Frendo H., Maltese Political Development 1798-1964, Malta, 1993 inscribed by author (€25-30)

866* Borg D., Liberta Mhedda, Malta, 2002, (€10-15)

867* De Crespo A. (Ed), The Third Siege of Malta, Malta, 2021 (€10-15)

868* A collection of Melita Historica (€20-30)

869* Lot of Saghtar Magazines and Vigilo Magazines (€5-10)

870* A lot of Melitensia books about Maltese language (€20-30)

871* A lot of Melitensia books about Maltese folklore (€20-30)

872* A lot of Melitensia books about Maltese politics (€20-30)

873* A lot of Melitensia books about Maltese localities (€10-15)

874* Cassar J., Gonzi, Malta, 2013 inscribed by author (€10-15)

875* Schiavione M.J., Callus L., Inservi, Malta, 2010 (€40-40)

876* Demarco G., Politics of Persuasion, Malta, 2008 (€15-20)

877* The Armed Forces of Malta Journal (1977, 1978, 1979) (€20-30)

878* A lot of Heritage magazines (€10-15)

879* A lot of Melitensia books about Maltese history (€10-15)

880* A lot of Melitensia books about gardening (€10-15)

881* A lot of Melitensia books about Malta in WWII (€20-30)

882* A lot of Melitensia books about various subjects (€20-30)

883* A lot of Melitensia books: Maltese novels (€25-30)

884* A lot of Melitensia books about Maltese personalities (€25-30)

885* Delucca D., Mondion, Malta, 2003 (€40-50)

886* Richard England , Architect in Malta, Malta, 1969 (€40-50)

887* Azzopardi J. (ed), St Paul's Grotto Church and Museum, Malta, 1990 (€100-120)

888* Bonello G., Art in Malta Discoveries and Rediscoveries, Malta, 1998 (€60-80)

889* De Piro N., International Directory of Artists who painted Malta, Malta, 1988 (€100-120)

890* Cassola A., The 1565 Ottoman Malta Campaign, Malta, 1988 (€35-40)

891* Galea Naudi J., Micallef D., Antique Maltese Furniture, 1989 (€100-120)

RARE BOOKS

892* Zammit T., Il-Gzejjer ta' Malta u L-Glorja taghhom, Malta, 1924 (€30-40)

893* Statuto Fondamentale dell' Universita' di Malta, Malta, 1838 (€30-40)

- 894* Malta Royal Commission, 1931 Report, London, 1932 (€30-40)
- 895* Mackinnon A.G., Malta Nurse of the Mediterranean, London, 1916 (€30-40)
- 896* De Domenico F.S., An Island Beleaguered, (€30-40)
- 897* A lot of Melitensia books about the Maltese Language (€20-30)
- 898* Bonnici J., Cassar M., The Royal Malta Opera House, Malta, 1990 (€40-50)
- 899* Sammut J.C., From Scudo to Sterling, Malta, 1992 ex libris Guido Lanfranco (1930-2021) (€70-80)
- 900* Buhagiar M., The Iconography of the Maltese Islands 1400-1900, Malta, 1988 (€70-90)
- 901* Vella P., Malta Blitzed but not Beaten, Malta, 1985 (€20-40)
- 902* Vella P., Malta Blitzed but not Beaten, Malta, 1985 (€20-40)
- 903* Bonnici M, Cassar J., The Malta Grand Harbour and its Dock Yard, Malta 1994 (€80-100)
- 904* Bonnici M, Cassar J., The Malta Grand Harbour and its Dock Yard, Malta 1994 soft bound (€80-100)
- 905* Grima J.F., 60th anniversary Malta Historical Society, Malta, 2010 (€30-50)
- 906* Kilin, A Maltese Mosaic, Malta, 1990; Bonnici J., Tifkira tal-Kungress Ewkaristiku-1913, Malta, 1988 (€20-30)
- 907* Malta-The History of Coinage, Said International, Malta, 2004 (€180-200)
- 908* Camilleri M., Vella T., (ed) Celebratio Amicitiae, Essays in honour of Giovanni Bonello, FPM, 2006 ex libris Guido Lanfranco (1930-2021) (€60-80)
- 909* Pace A., (ed) Maltese Prehistoric Art (500-2500 B.C), FPM ex libris Guido Lanfranco (1930-2021) (€25-30)
- 910* Bonnici J., Cassar M., A Chronicle of Twentieth Century, Malta, 2004 ex libris Guido Lanfranco (1930-2021) (€180-200)
- 911* Demarco G., Politics of Persuasion, An Autobiography, Malta (€15-20)
- 912* Calleja J., Paolo DeBono (1848-1906), The Intelligent Judge, Malta, 1996 (€15-20)
- 913* Mousù S., Id-Dar Maltija, Malta, 2007 (inscribed by author) (€25-30)
- 914* Cachia F., Vision and Verification, Grech Orr C., In the Editor's chair; John Paul II in Malta, Sicilia Cioé se vi piace (€15-20)
- 915* Borg T., Nidhqu bina nfusna Politika bi Tbissima, Malta, 2015 (€15-20)
- 916* Bluet B., The Story of Malta, Malta, 1997 2 vols (€10-15)
- 917* Lest we forget "Santa Marija"- A tribute to Malta Convoy Heroes, 1942, Malta, 1967; Mizzi John A., Gallipoli, Malta 1991 (€15-20)
- 918* Cutajar D., Malta History and Works of Art St John's Church Valletta, Malta (€5-10)
- 919* Two unpublished theses of the University of Malta: Schriha A., Exercise and its effect and Pulmonary Disease Chronic Obtrusive effect and Curmi A., Malta as Seen by Foreigners, 1973 (€20-30)
- 920* Savona Ventura G., Knight Hospitalier Medicine in Malta (1530-1798) Malta, 2004 inscribed by author (€20-30)
- 921* Treasures of Malta Vol I No2, Vol 2 No 3 (€30-40)
- 922* Degiorgio R., A city by an Order, Malta, 1985 (€40-60)

- 923* Luttrell A., Hal-Millieri, Malta, 1976 inscribed by author (€60-80)
- 924* Scicluna H.P., Acts et Documents, Malta, 1979 (€40-50)
- 925* Wettinger G., The Jews of Malta in the Middle Ages, Malta, 1985 (€300-350)
- 926* Dobbie E., Malta's Road to Independence, USA. 1967 (€15-20)
- 927* England R., Walls of Malta, 1969 (€120-140)
- 928* Harding H., Maltese legal History under British Rule, Malta, 1968 (€30-40)
- 929* Sultana D., The Journey of Sir Walter Scott, London, 1986 (€10-15)
- 930* Laferla A.V., British Malta 1800-1872, Malta, 1946 Vol I, Vol II (€30-40)
- 931* Manduca J., Malta's Who's Who, Malta, 1987 (€15-20)
- 932* Frendo H., Friggieri O., Malta Culture and Identity, Malta, 1994 inscribed by author (€30-40)
- 933* Kinninmoth C., Traveller's Guide to Malta, Malta, 1970 (€10-15)
- 934* Blout B., The Story of Malta, London 1967 (€50-60)
- 935* Rose H., Your Guide to Malta, London, 1963 (€15-20)
- 936* Hogg G., Malta-Blue Water Island, Malta, 1967 (€15-20)
- 937* Dennis N., Essays on Malta, London, 1972 (€30-40)
- 938* Leopardi E.R., Malta's Heritage, Malta, 1969 (€25-30)
- 939* King E., (revised and continued by H. Luke), Knights of Malta in British Realm, London 1967 (€70-100)
- 940* Peyrefitte R., The Knights of Malta, London, 1960 (€15-20)
- 941* Evans J.D., Malta, London 1959 (€200-250)
- 942* Testa C., The French in Malta, London 1975 (No 320) (€60-70)
- 943* Guida Generale di Malta e Gozo, 1916 (€15-20)
- 944* Ferris A., Ripertorio Etimologico Grammaticale, Malta, 1857 (€30-40)
- 945* Preca A., Malta Canenea, Malta, 1904 (€30-40)
- 946* Dalli A., Bcejjec ta Storia Maltia, Malta 1896 (€30-40)
- 947* Foot I., The Malta Vatican and their British Concern, Speech by Lord Strckland, London (€30-40)
- 948* Sciberras G., Id-Delitt ta, Gianni Borg, Malta (€5-10)
- 949* Brockman E., Maltese Memories, London, 1938 (€30-40)
- 950* Aquilina J., English, Maltese Dictionary, Malta 1999 Vols I, II, III, IV, V, VI (€80-100)

GARAGES

- 951* A lot of assorted crockery in boxes (€10-15)
- 952* Five Gozo weave sheep's wool carpets (€50-60)
- 953* An antique 19th cent ebonised and gilt frame (€25-40)
- 954* A pair of oak three-drawer cupboards raised on plinth bases (€60-80)
- 955* A pair of large, framed prints one entitled 'Twas Trafalgar Bay and the other The Toast is Britain in walnut finish frame (€50-60)
- 956* A 1960s G-plan four-seater sofa and a matching armchair (€80-100)
- 957* A mahogany bureau of small proportions, the slope opening to reveal a fitted interior on four long

|                                                                                                                                     |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                     |                                                                                                                        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| drawers on bracket feet (€140-160)                                                                                                  | 969* | An Edwardian mahogany side chair having a red upholstered seat (€20-30)                                                                                                                            | 979*                | An antique 19 th cent bentwood rocking chair (€60-80)                                                       |
| 958* A pair of Joinwell G-plan armchairs having loose cushions (€60-80)                                                      | 970* | A 1930s mahogany oval coffee table (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                        | 980*                | A white and gilt oval coffee table, the pink marble moulded top on a carved frieze raised on four fluted legs (€60-80) |
| 959* A 1930s oval mahogany coffee table (€20-30)                                                                                    | 971* | A Joinwell mahogany twin-flap coffee table (€60-70)                                                                                                                                         | 981*                | A lot of assorted crockery in box (€5-10)                                                                              |
| 960* A lot of Pyrex ware (€5-10)                                                                                                    | 972* | An antique 19 th cent gilt over-mantle mirror frame (€30-40)                                                                                                                            | 982*                | A 1960s mahogany three drawer cupboard raised on plinth base (€40-60)                                                  |
| 961* A set of four antique Regency mahogany dining chairs having leather upholstered seats (€50-60)                                 | 973* | A red upholstered tub chair (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                               | 983*                | A solid oak bedside table (€40-60)                                                                                     |
| 962* Two antique 19 th cent mahogany side chairs, one having a ladder back and the other upholstered in leather (€40-50) | 974* | An Art Deco mahogany and inlaid square coffee table, the moulded top on stylised cabriole legs joined by stretchers on a square under-tier (€50-70)                                                | 984*                | A Joinwell G-Plan TV armchair (€30-40)                                                                          |
| 963* A salon mirror having a gilt frame (€40-50)                                                                                    | 975* | A lot of assorted crockery in boxes (on table) (€10-15)                                                                                                                                            | 985*                | A pair of antique early 20 th cent side chairs having cane seats (€30-40)                                   |
| 964* A Joinwell G-plan coffee table (€60-80)                                                                                 | 976* | An antique Maltese mahogany nursing chair having a bobbin-turned back on an upholstered seat raised on cabriole legs (€50-100)                                                                     | 986*                | Two plastic stools and a 1970s cane stool (€15-20)                                                                     |
| 965* A 1930s gilt acanthus leaf frame (€30-40)                                                                                      | 977* | A Mason's Ironstone tea service in box decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€25-30)                                                                                                        | 987*                | A sundry lot of crockery in box (€5-10)                                                                                |
| 966* An antique 19 th cent Maltese mahogany balloon-back side chair (€25-30)                                             | 978* | A Joinwell G-plan mahogany writing bureau, the slope opening to reveal a fitted interior of pigeon holes and drawers on two short and two long drawers on brass mounted block feet (€60-80) | 988*                | A sundry lot of crockery in box (€5-10)                                                                                |
| 967* A 1930s mahogany square side table (€25-30)                                                                                    |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                    | VINTAGE CARS |                                                                                                                        |
| 968* A 1930s oak gateleg table, the carved moulded top on turned legs joined by a stretcher raised on bun feet (€80-100)            |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 989*                | AUSTIN MINI Saloon, Date of Manufacture 1966, Petrok (€4000-4500))                                                     |
|                                                                                                                                     |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 990*                | TOYOTA Starlet, Date of Manufacture 1990, Petrol (€600-800)                                                            |

|       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 991*  | VOLVO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 345   | upholstered damask seats on cabriole front legs and sabre hind legs (€400-600)                                                                                                                                                                                       | table, the moulded D-end top on a pair of pedestals with extra leaf (€150-200)                                                                                        |
| 992*  | A solid mahogany corner shop bench (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                                             | 1002* | A three tier what not (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 1011* A pair of antique early 20 th cent mahogany cache pot stands (€40-60)                                                                                |
| 993*  | A 1950s wicker sewing basket (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 1003* | An antique Victorian mahogany swing mirror (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 1012* A Corby mahogany electric valet (€30-40)                                                                                                                 |
| 994*  | A 1960s wrought-iron floor lamp (€35-40)                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 1004* | A collection of vintage oil cans (€40-60)                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 1013* A pair of antique Maltese carved stone cache pots on stands decorated with hand-painted floral decoration throughout (€100-120)                                 |
| 995*  | A modern leather sofa and a matching square pouffe (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                             | 1005* | An antique Maltese late 19 th cent mahogany armchair, the carved top rail decorated with a central scallop trailing to carved foliage on an upholstered back trailing to carved and upholstered armrests on an upholstered seat on carved legs (€200-250) | 1014* An antique Victorian mahogany cased long case clock having painted dial (€120-150)                                                                              |
| 996*  | A single bed complete with mattress (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                             | 1006* | An antique Maltese late 19 th cent mahogany side table/dressing table, the white Carrara marble moulded top on two frieze drawers on turned legs (€100-250)                                                                                               | 1015* A large hand-thrown Peter the Potter painted terracotta ornamental ewer (€80-100)                                                                        |
| 997*  | A 1950s good quality white and gilt five door wardrobe (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                         | 1007* | An antique Maltese mahogany sofa table, the twin-flap moulded top on a long frieze drawer on a pair of fluted uprights joined by an under-stretcher on splay feet mounted with brass castors (€300-350)                                                              | 1016* An antique Maltese late 19 th cent gilt salon mirror, the cresting in the shape of a trophy mounted with a dove on a double-moulded frame (€150-180) |
| 998*  | A mahogany coffee table (€30-50)                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 1008* | An antique 19 th cent bentwood rocking chair (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 1017* Three antique salt glazed washing tubs (€30-40)                                                                                                                 |
| 999*  | An antique 19 th Cent Maltese hardwood spinning wheel (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                | 1009* | An antique Victorian brass fender (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1000* | A set of six Maltese late 19 th cent mahogany salon side chairs, the carved top rails decorated with roses and foliage on balloon-shaped backs with carved back rails on upholstered seats on carved cabriole legs (€300-350) | 1010* | An antique mahogany telescopic dining                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1001* | A set of six antique Maltese late 19 th cent mahogany salon side chairs having ballon-shaped backs, the top rails decorated with carved roses and foliage on a carved back rail on red                                        |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                       |

FOURTH DAY OF SALE

WED. 15TH JULY 2026

At 4:00p.m.

FLAT NO 1 HALL

1018* An antique 19th cent polychromised wall mirror, the carved cornice decorated with a central scallop trailing to scrolls on a painted mirror ending in scroll sides (€200-250)

1019* An early 20th cent mahogany two-door cupboard raised on tapering legs (€40-50)

1020* A Chinese wool carpet having a floral design (€20-30)

1021* A machine-made carpet having a Persian design on a green field (€10-15)

1022* An antique early Victorian mahogany hall mirror having a fretwork frame (€60-80)

1023* An antique late Victorian oak-cased tantalus complete with bottles mounted with different stoppers and another case (€40-60)

1024* A pair of 1950s green Murano glass baluster-shaped flower vases decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist (€45-60)

1025* An antique early 20th cent model of a Maltese luzzu with a family alighting under glass case by Raffaele Engerer (€200-250)

1026* An antique mahogany side/writing table, the moulded top on one long drawer mounted with a brass escutcheon and lyre-shaped legs on splay feet joined by an under-stretcher (€300-350)

1027* An antique 19th cent French church candlestick raised on a tripartite base mounted with a head of Christ, St John the Baptist and The Virgin (€100-150)

1028* A stained pine wall mounted shelving mounted with glass shelves (€40-50)

1029* An early 20th Cent large flower vase mounted with a female figure of a young maiden dressed in silver classical costume (€20-30)

1030* A 1950s mahogany-cased wall clock having an Arabic numeral brass and steel dial with visible pendulum (€60-80)

1031* An antique George III style mahogany salon mirror having a fretwork cornice mounted with a carved eagle (€60-80)

1032* A Maltese mahogany and inlaid dwarf chest of drawers, the moulded serpentine-fronted top inlaid with Maltese crosses on shaped drawers and inlaid sides on a shaped apron on cabriole legs (€250-300)

1033* An antique mid-20th Cent hand-knotted wool

on wool Anatolian runner having a geometric design on a blue field (€400-450)

1034* A Sicilian maiolica cache pot decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€25-30)

1035* A Chinese blue and white tall flower vase decorated with stylised flowers and foliage raised on a wooden base (€25-30)

1036* A set of six antique early 20th cent bentwood high-back chairs having cane seats (€80-100)

1037* A pair of Florentine-gilt twin light wall sconces (€30-40)

1038* Two antique mid-19th cent Sicilian terracotta serving bowls decorated with stylised flowers and foliage amongst geometric arabesque designs (€40-60)

1039* A Florentine gilt mirror having a carved frame of scrolls and decorated with a scallop to the cornice (€80-100)

1040* A pair of antique early 20th cent French spelter figures representing allegories entitled Detresse and Secours (€80-100)

1041* A pair of 1950s alabaster columns having an octagonal top and raised on octagonal and round bases (€300-350)

1042* An antique late Victorian oil lamp having a red

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| glass well raised on a pyramid-shaped base (€150-200)                                                                                                                                                          | country scene in frames (€30-40)                                                                                                                                               | decorated with transfers after old masters (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1043* An antique Victorian mantle clock, the Arabic numeral dial mounted with a figure of a gentleman in 18th cent costume beside a young boy on a black marble mounted base (€200-250)                        | 1051* Two painted cast metal five-branch candelabra raised on shaped round bases (€40-60)                                                                                      | 1059* A pair of early 20th cent hand-coloured photographs of The Beheading of St John and St Jerome in gilt frame (€40-60)                                                                                                                                    |
| 1044* A 1950s mahogany and inlaid side table, the beaded moulded serpentine-fronted top on a shaped frieze drawer on shaped apron on four cabriole legs (€180-200)                                             | 1052* A pair of antique early 20th cent mahogany and inlaid dwarf chest of drawers, the serpentine-fronted top on two shaped long drawers on cabriole legs (€400-500)          | 1060* An antique late 19th cent large format engraving entitled The Death of Nelson at the Battle of Trafalgar by Charles William Sharpe (1818-1899) based on the painting by Daniel Maclise (1806-1870) dated 1876 in mahogany cross frame (€120-140) |
| 1045* A collection of various copper items (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                            | 1053* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany cache pot/stick stand, the shaped sides mounted on turned uprights joined by an under-tier mounted with a brass tray (€60-80) | 1061* A pair of antique 19th cent carved white alabaster urn-shaped vases decorated with carved roses and foliage (€450-500)                                                                                                                                  |
| 1046* An antique late 19th cent brass table top quill holder (€20-30)                                                                                                                                          | 1054* An antique early 20th cent French bisque group representing the Virgin and Child (€80-120)                                                                               | 1062* An antique 19th cent French gilt mantle clock, the round Roman numeral porcelain dial mounted with an equestrian figure of a hunter on a rocaille base raised on a plinth base (€180-200)                                                               |
| 1047* Three large WWII brass bomb shells (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                             | 1055* An antique 19th cent Sicilian maiolica ornamental ewer decorated with hand-painted coastal scene to the waist (€25-30)                                                   | 1063* An antique Victorian walnut and inlaid break-front credenza, the ebonised moulded top on an inlaid frieze on a single-door cupboard flanked by bombé doors on a shaped plinth base raised on bun feet (€450-500)                                        |
| 1048* A lot of thirty-five framed lithographs depicting prominent men in oak-finish frames (€300-350)                                                                                                          | 1056* A 1930s Liberty style silver plated centre-piece complete with crystal liner (€25-30)                                                                                    | 1064* A pair of antique water jugs decorated with flowers and foliage (€35-40)                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1049* A mahogany cased Maltese clock having a painted Roman numeral dial, the centre decorated with a view of the Grand Harbour and flowers to the spandrels, battery mechanism and visible pendulum (€80-100) | 1057* A water-colour on paper painting depicting an equestrian man in uniform entitled 4th Light Dragoons 1820 by Charles Palmier (b. 1950) (€30-40)                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1050* A water-colour on paper painting depicting a coastal scene with snowcapped mountains to the background and a water-colour on paper painting depicting an English                                         | 1058* A pair of Florentine gilt wall plaques                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

- 1065* An antique Victorian advertising The Encore Whiskey jug (€40-60)
- 1066* An antique Victorian advertising The Encore Whiskey jug (€40-60)
- 1067* An antique late 19th cent white and gilt French vase decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist (€30-40)
- 1068* Two antique Edwardian china teapots decorated with stylised flowers and foliage to the waist (€20-30)
- 1069* An assorted lot of various ornaments on shelf (€15-30)
- 1070* A lot of assorted figurines on shelf (€15-30)
- 1071* A set of six 1940s blue and white cups and saucers for six persons, complete with two bowls, two square plates and six side plates (€25-30)
- 1072* Three silver on resin wall plaques depicting Maltese views in walnut-finish frames in boxes (€25-30)
- 1073* A 1950s Italian maiolica large ornamental flower vase decorated with a coastal scene to the waist (€80-100)
- 1074* A pair of 1960s coloured prints depicting birds of song in ebonised and gilt frames (€10-15)
- 1075* A pair of medium sized WWII brass bomb shells (€60-80)
- 1076* A pair of antique hand-coloured steel engravings entitled Strada Sant Ursola Valletta and Jesuits in Procession, Valletta Malta drawn by Allen, engraved by F. Prout and printed by J. Carter (€60-80)
- 1077* An antique ebonised wall clock, the Arabic numeral dial on a visible pendulum in a carved architectural case (€120-130)
- 1078* A Joinwell mahogany glove chest, the moulded D-end top on four shaped drawers raised on bracket feet (€100-120)
- 1079* An antique WWI large bomb shell (€40-80)
- 1080* A good quality 1950s white and gilt seven drawer chest raised on cabriole legs (€40-50)
- 1081* A pair of antique 19th cent engravings depicting domestic scenes in gilt frames (€30-40)
- 1082* A lot of assorted prints (€10-15)
- 1083* A metal folding bed complete with mattress (€10-15)
- 1084* A CampingGaz gas heater in good condition (€30-40)
- 1085* A good quality 1950s white and gilt bedside table (€30-40)
- 1086* A CampingGaz gas heater in good condition (€30-40)
- 1087* A lot of linen in cupboard (€10-15)
- 1088* An antique hand-knotted wool on wool Persian Afghan rug having a geometric pattern on a brown field (€250-300))
- 1089* A pair of antique Edwardian oval, coloured prints depicting cottage scenes in period moulded brass frames (€20-30)
- 1090* Two plastic cupboards (€20-30)
- 1091* A chrome floor lamp (€10-15)
- 1092* An upholstered tub chair (€10-15)

SITTING/DINING

- 1093* An oil on canvas painting depicting a still life of roses and foliage in gilt frame (€40-50)
- 1094* A pair of Japanese Imari covered vases decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€25-40)
- 1095* A pair of antique crystal decanters, a pressed glass centrepiece, two crystal tea light holders and an

|                                                   |                                                                                                                                              |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| antique Willow pattern twin-handled bowl (€10-15) |                                                                                                                                              | 1115* | A lot of crystal glasses on shelf (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1096*                                             | Two Chinese porcelain figurines representing ladies in traditional costume and a glazed porcelain figurine representing a ballerina (€15-20) | 1107* | A set of six antique Czech porcelain ribbon wall plates decorated with still lifes of fruit and foliage (€80-120)                                                                                           |
| 1097*                                             | An assorted lot of ornaments on top shelf (€20-30)                                                                                           | 1108* | A lot of antique plates, and a leaf-shaped serving dish (€20-30)                                                                                                                                            |
| 1098*                                             | Four antique Copeland wall plates decorated with spring flowers and foliage (€15-20)                                                         | 1109* | A set of seven antique 19th cent wall plates decorated with reliefs of flowers and foliage (€60-120)                                                                                                        |
| 1099*                                             | A set of six 1950s liquor glasses and an antique oval glass tray (€5-10)                                                                     | 1110* | A set of eight antique 19th cent Sarreguemines wall plates decorated with reliefs of various fruit and foliage (€60-80)                                                                                     |
| 1100*                                             | A lot of antique wall plates on shelf (€20-30)                                                                                               | 1111* | An antique Victorian oval serving dish and two matching plates decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€30-40)                                                                                         |
| 1101*                                             | A pair of antique Victorian Willow pattern wall plates (€15-20)                                                                              | 1112* | Four antique 19th cent Sarreguemines wall plates decorated with reliefs of various fruit and foliage (€40-60)                                                                                               |
| 1102*                                             | Three antique Victorian transfer sauce tureens (€15-20)                                                                                      | 1113* | An early 20th cent Austrian porcelain part dinner service for twelve persons decorated with roses and foliage, marks for MZ Austrian (Moritz Zdekauer) (€100-120)                                           |
| 1103*                                             | Two antique hand-painted wall plates decorated with flowers and foliage (€30-40)                                                             | 1114* | A part Czech porcelain dessert service for six persons having a fluted rim and decorated with stylised flowers and foliage complete with serving dish and a sectioned comport (€25-30)                      |
| 1104*                                             | A porcelain centrepiece mounted with a swan amongst reeds (€20-30)                                                                           | 1116* | An antique mid-19th century Maltese mahogany showcase, the thin moulded cornice on a two-door case with astragal glazing bars opening to reveal a fitted interior of shelving raised on bun feet (€450-500) |
| 1105*                                             | An antique Victorian comport decorated with flowers and foliage (€20-30)                                                                     | 1117* | A mahogany rectangular-shaped coffee table having a glass top raised on turned uprights joined by an under-tier (€60-80)                                                                                    |
| 1106*                                             | Two antique Victorian bowls (€20-30)                                                                                                         | 1118* | A pair of porcelain wall plaques decorated with ladies in period costume framed in gilt frames (€80-100)                                                                                                    |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                              | 1119* | An antique Victorian hand-coloured engraving depicting a mother and child after Thomas Gainsborough and engraved by G.B Shaw in gilt frame (€30-40)                                                         |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                              | 1120* | A perpetual motion clock under plastic dome (€25-30)                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                              | 1121* | An antique Victorian papier-mâché and mother of pearl inlaid collapsible occasional table decorated with flowers and foliage on a turned shaft on three splay feet (€240-300)                               |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                              | 1122* | A mahogany cased Maltese clock having a painted Roman numeral dial, battery mechanism and visible pendulum (€40-60)                                                                                         |

- 1123* An antique late 18th cent Roman School oil on canvas painting depicting The Virgin and Child in ornate gilt period frame (€650-700)
- 1124* A Florentine gilt wall mounted shelf (€10-15)
- 1125* An antique 19th cent cast bronze bust of the Emperor Hadrian wearing a breast plate with a relief of the Medusa raised on a round base (€1200-1400)
- 1126* An antique Maltese late 18th cent walnut console table, the thick serpentine-fronted moulded grey Carrara marble top on an undulating apron on four elegant carved cabriole legs raised on claw feet (€1100-1300)
- 1127* A 1930s English mahogany round coffee table, the moulded top on a short frieze raised on carved claw and ball feet (€60-80)
- 1128* A Victorian Style oil on board painting depicting a young peasant girl in ornate gilt frame (€60-80)
- 1129* An antique 19th cent polychromised figure of St Joseph holding the Child Jesus (€300-350)
- 1130* An antique 19th cent French Boulle brass inlaid bijoux table, the moulded inlaid top inlaid with sprays of flowers and foliage on a shaped frieze on cabriole legs mounted with ormolu mounts (€800-1000)
- 1131* Two wall plaques one mounted with a Capodimonte relief of flowers and foliage in gilt frame and another (€10-15)
- 1132* A stained pine wall mounted corner shelving, the triple moulded cornice on two shelves on a moulded base (€40-50)
- 1133* A lot of ornaments on shelf (€15-20)
- 1134* A brass centre-piece the bowl raised on four fluted pilasters raised on a round base (€60-80)
- 1135* A Joinwell Reprodux mahogany drinks cabinet, the moulded cornice on a two-door case on two short drawers on a two-door cupboard on bracket feet (€300-350)
- 1136* A lot of assorted crystal glasses on stems and a round crystal covered jar (€10-15)
- 1137* A set of six hand-cut lead crystal port glasses on stems (€15-20)
- 1138* A hand-cut lead crystal fan-shaped flowers vase (€10-15)
- 1139* A hand-cut lead crystal butter dish with lid (€10-15)
- 1140* A hand-cut lead crystal desk bell and oval box (€10-15)
- 1141* A hand-cut lead crystal decanter and a flower vase (€10-15)
- 1142* Two Gozo onyx pin trays, a Satsuma baluster-shaped flower vase and a set of coasters (€5-10)
- 1143* A pair of powder blue curtains complete with tie-backs (€20-30)
- 1144* A white porcelain cache pot mounted with lion-shaped medallions (€30-40)
- 1145* A mahogany round occasional table raised on a turned shaft on three splay feet (€30-40)
- 1146* An antique clear glass oil lamp and a Florentine gilt carved wood lampshade (€25-30)
- 1147* An Art Deco cast bronze representing a male acrobat in a circle mounted on a black marble base signed Aldo Vitlaeh (€400-450)
- 1148* A cast bronze representing Neptune holding a trident in one hand mounted on a black marble base (€240-300)
- 1149* An antique George III mahogany and inlaid demi-lune card table, the swivel top on a short line-inlaid frieze on four tapering legs (€350-400)
- 1150* An antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on board painting depicting the Immaculate Conception wearing a gold crown flanked

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| by angels (without frame) (€700-750)                                                                                                                                                                              | four beaker-shaped liqueur glasses decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€25-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 1166* A water-colour on paper painting depicting a farmhouse, signed Ciantar 1976 in wooden frame (€20-40)                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1151* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany drawing-room suite consisting of a two-seater sofa, two armchairs and four side chairs (€400-450)                                                                | 1159* A pair of early 20th cent Chinese blue and white baluster-shaped flower vases decorated with almond tree blossoms (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                        | 1167* A pair of lampshades mounted with figures of lovers complete with shades (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1152* An antique Victorian red glass lemonade set consisting of a jug and five glasses (€30-40)                                                                                                                   | 1160* A Capodimonte figurine representing an altar boy holding a thurible in one hand (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 1168* An antique Victorian rosewood and inlaid square envelope card table, the swivel top with four flaps each inlaid with a scallop amongst scrolls on an inlaid frieze on four tapering legs joined by a triangular fretwork stretcher on brass castors (€450-500) |
| 1153* A blue and white Chinese vase and a glazed bisque figure of a young girl in traditional costume (€15-20)                                                                                                    | 1161* An antique Capodimonte group representing putti around a table, one playing with a globe and a ship in glass bottle inscribed Mayflower (€10-15)                                                                                                                                           | 1169* A mouth blown glass baluster-shaped flower vase (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1154* An antique 19th cent French baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€40-60)                                                                                            | 1162* An antique Victorian English china covered jug decorated with swags of flowers and foliage having a pewter lid (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                           | 1170* A pair of antique gilt pelmets decorated with a central mask and scrolls (€250-300)                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1155* An antique Victorian black china tea pot decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€20-30)                                                                                                           | 1163* An early 20th cent Maltese olivewood and inlaid bureau, the double-domed moulded top mounted with turned spindles on a two-door case on two long drawers on a slope opening to reveal a fitted interior of pigeon holes and drawers on three long graduated drawers on cabriole legs (€1500-1700) | 1171* An Italian School oil on board painting depicting a village scene in gilt frame (€25-30)                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1156* A Capodimonte figure representing a putto holding a bunch of grapes, an antique Victorian trinket tray mounted with a kneeling putto holding a candlestick and a figure of an angel holding a bell (€25-30) | 1164* A pair of hand-carved Florentine gilt wall sconces decorated with carved scrolls and foliage (€40-60)                                                                                                                                                                                             | 1171* A Louis XV inlaid round centre table, the brass bound and inlaid top decorated with inlaid sprays of flowers and foliage on a shaped and similarly inlaid frieze on four cabriole legs (€250-300)                                                              |
| 1157* A pair of bisque figurines representing ladies in period costume and a porcelain group of a boy and girl dressed in 18th cent costume dancing (€15-25)                                                      | 1165* A pair of hand-carved Florentine gilt wall sconces decorated with carved scrolls and foliage (€40-60)                                                                                                                                                                                             | 1172* An antique mid-19th cent coloured lithograph inscribed Marsamuscietto depicting a view of the Grand Harbour by Michele Bellanti (1807-1883) in mahogany and gilt frame (€250-300)                                                                       |
| 1158* An antique Victorian blue glass barrel and                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

|       |                                                                                                                                                                                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1173* | An antique mid-19 th cent coloured lithograph entitled Marina Gate by Michele Bellanti (1807-1883) in mahogany and gilt frame (€250-300)                           | 1180* | A pair of antique Victorian bisque posy holders mounted with figures of children holding seashells (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                    | 1190* | An antique Victorian bronze-finish terracotta figure of a man in armour in contrapposto position (€80-100)                                                                                                               |
| 1174* | An antique Edwardian School oil on canvas painting depicting a country scene with a cottage beside a lake with a boy fishing in the foreground in ornate gilt frame (€80-100)        | 1181* | An antique red and opaline glass oil lamp complete with etched glass shade (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                            | 1191* | An antique late 19 th Cent ebonised cache pot stand, the turned baluster-shaped shaft mounted with grotesque heads trailing to shaped carved legs on tripartite base mounted with a central finial (€150-300) |
| 1175* | An antique 18 th cent Italian School oil on canvas painting depicting the Virgin and Child flanked by St Anthony of Padua and St Ignatius in fluted gilt frame (€650-700) | 1182* | An antique glass and bronze oil lamp, the well decorated with stylised flowers and foliage and shade (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                  | 1192* | A water-colour on paper painting depicting Turkish ladies seated in the style of Count Amadeo Preziosi (1816-1882) in gilt frame (€230-260)                                                                              |
| 1176* | An antique large Victorian bisque group representing a young girl with her dog (€200-250)                                                                                            | 1183* | An antique Central African carved ivory necklace (€70-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 1193* | A water-colour on paper painting depicting Turkish ladies at a market in the style of Count Amadeo Preziosi (1816-1882) in gilt frame (€230-260)                                                                         |
| 1177* | An antique Sterling silver engine-turned square cigarette case with initials JCPD dated 21/5/24 (€40-50)                                                                             | 1184* | An Oriental copper coffee pot complete with hinged lid (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                                                | 1194* | An antique early 20 th cent Maltese School oil on board painting depicting Italian villagers in a procession amongst typical buildings by Joseph Galea (1904-1985) in period gilt frame (€120-140)            |
| 1178* | An antique Victorian walnut pier cabinet, the moulded top on a shaped frieze on a single-door case having silk lining mounted with ormolu corbels raised on plinth base (€600-800)   | 1185* | An Oriental copper coffee pot complete with hinged lid (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                                                | 1195* | An antique late 19 th Cent gouache on paper painting depicting a view of the Grand Harbour with battle ships by Vincenzo D'Esposito (1886-1946) in gilt frame (€360-400)                                      |
| 1179* | A pair of Edwardian bisque figurines representing ladies with their children in 18 th cent costume (€20-30)                                                               | 1186* | An Oriental copper coffee pot complete with hinged lid (€25-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                | 1196* | An antique Victorian blue and white oval serving dish decorated with transfer flowers and foliage to the base and rim (€30-40)                                                                                           |
|       |                                                                                                                                                                                      | 1187* |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|       |                                                                                                                                                                                      | 1188* | A German Karl Enes porcelain figure representing birds of song (€70-80)                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|       |                                                                                                                                                                                      | 1189* | An antique French kingwood and inlaid three tier whatnot, the galleried ormolu mounted top mounted with finials on three inlaid tiers, the top inlaid with flowers and foliage and the other with marquetry inlay on turned uprights on shaped feet (€130-160) |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

|       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |       |                                                                                                                                                               |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1197* | A cast bronze sculpture representing the flower thrower signed Biansky raised on a plinth base (€200-240)                                                                                                                                                       | 1204  | An oval inlaid coffee table, the moulded top inlaid with sprays of flowers and foliage raised on fluted legs (€60-80)                                                                                                                                     | 1211* | An antique Victorian Berlin Chaplet china oblong serving dish decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€25-30)                                            |
| 1198* | An Art Deco bronze sculpture representing a dancer in Egyptian costume (€300-350)                                                                                                                                                                               | 1205* | An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany occasional table, the pie-crust top on a turned shaft on three carved splay feet (€100-120)                                                                                                                    | 1212* | A Middle Eastern bone inlaid square coffee table, the moulded top on a shaped frieze on shaped cabriole legs (€80-100)                                        |
| 1199* | An English china centre-piece encrusted with spring flowers and foliage (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                                | 1206* | A pair of gold velvet lined wall sconces mounted with brass mounts (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                               | 1213* | A hand-knotted Persian Afghan wool on wool rug having a geometric pattern in red and navy tones (€350-400)                                                    |
| 1200* | An antique Victorian glass oil lamp, the tulip-shaped shade having a fluted undulating rim, the shade and well decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage (€180-240)                                                                                       | 1207* | An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany centre table ( tal-Biskuttin ), the cartouche-shaped top on a moulded frieze on a carved and turned shaft decorated with acanthus leaves on carved splay feet mounted with carved lion heads (€600-800) | 1214* | A hand-knotted Persian wool on wool door mat (€20-30)                                                                                                         |
| 1201* | An antique Edwardian mahogany chest of drawers, the moulded and inlaid top on two short and two long drawers raised on turned legs (€150-200)                                                                                                                   | 1208* | An antique Victorian burr walnut and mahogany oval occasional table, the inlaid moulded top on a turned shaft raised on carved splay feet (€150-180)                                                                                                      | 1215* | An antique 19th cent Maltese mahogany square-shaped breakfast table, the moulded top on a short-moulded frieze on turned legs on castors (€200-250)           |
| 1202* | A pair of antique 19th cent French kingwood and inlaid side/occasional tables, the moulded pink marble top on undulating sides mounted with ormolu mounts of scrolls and foliage on four elegant cabriole legs mounted with ormolu mounts and sabots (€600-800) | 1209* | A pair of six-light chandeliers mounted with drops (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                                               | 1216* | An antique 18th cent Savona blue pharmacy versatoio mounted with spout inscribed CARDOSTET amongst stylised flowers and foliage (€1200-1500)    |
| 1203* | A pair of antique 19th Cent carved-wood Venetian torchières in the shape of a Blackamoor in traditional costume holding a tazza raised on a gondola on plinth bases (€550-700)                                                                                  | 1210* | An antique mid-19th cent Maltese mahogany sofa table, the pie-crust moulded top with twin flaps on a serpentine-fronted frieze on a carved tapering shaft on a quadripartite base on carved cabriole legs (€1500-1800)                                    | 1217* | A set of four antique Victorian dining chairs, the shaped back on a carved-shaped slat on an upholstered seat on turned and fluted legs on castors (€200-250) |
|       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 1218* | A good quality machine-made carpet having a blue and cream field (€20-30)                                                                                     |
|       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 1219* | An Art Deco cast bronze representing a dancer in a long skirt mounted                                                                                         |

on a black marble base (€250-350)

1220* A cast bronze representing a ballerina wearing a tutu mounted on a black marble base (€180-250)

KITCHEN/YARD

1221* A gilt gesso wall mounted plinth mounted with a putto (€20-30)

1222* A pair of stained wood wall mounted corner shelving (€40-50)

1223* A mahogany-cased Citizen wall clock having an Arabic numeral dial (€20-30)

1224* A collection of antique native African carved figures (€50-60)

1225* A 1940s mahogany typist's desk of small proportions having one long drawer and four short drawers to one side (€50-80)

1226* A hand-made wrought-iron hall lantern (€80-100)

1227* A collection of various shells in box (€30-40)

1228* An oil on board painting depicting a still life of fruit laid out on a wooden service in gilt frame initialled LC 06 (€20-30)

1229* A baluster-shaped flower vase complete with artificial flower arrangement (€15-20)

1230* A set of sixteen antique Victorian blue and white transfer plates decorated with a hunting scene to the base Chevy Chase EW&S (€80-100)

1231* Three prints on canvas depicting various pebbles, unframed (€30-40)

1232* A mid-century mahogany telescopic dining table having upholstered seats (€240-300)

1233* Three mid-century mahogany dining chairs having upholstered seats (€60-80)

1234* A brand-new condition Griglioso table-top oven complete with extension (€40-50)

1235* A sundry lot of crockery in box (€10-15)

1236* A sundry lot of crockery in box (€10-15)

1237* A sundry lot of crockery in box (€10-15)

1238* A sundry lot of crockery in box (€10-15)

1239* A sundry lot of cutlery in box (€10-15)

1240* A Philips Sunrise toaster and a Suncrest electric table top hob (€10-15)

1241* A sundry lot of crockery on shelf, a lot of plates and white painted shelving (€10-15)

1242* Two oval serving dishes decorated with green garlands to the rim (€5-10)

1243* A brand new Scanpan wok/pan with lid in boxes (€40-50)

1244* An oil on canvas painting depicting a still life with a ham joint laid out on a table, signed G.P. Vassallo in frame (€80-100)

1245* A sundry lot of crockery in box (€10-15)

1246* A 1930s oak gateleg table, the twin-flap moulded top on barley-twist legs joined by stretchers raised on bun feet (€120-140)

1247* A 1950s baluster-shaped flower vase mounted with gilt scroll handles mounted on masks complete with under-dish decorated with flowers and foliage (€20-30)

1248* A pair of mid-century mahogany dining chairs having upholstered seats (€40-60)

1249* A lot of assorted crockery on and in top cupboard (€10-15)

1250* An antique 1933 EKCO black Bakelite cased radio having a round speaker grill (€90-100)

1251* A framed Surrealist print on canvas

|                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| depicting a face over the Valletta skyline (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                     | 1263* A pair of antique 1920s mahogany cache pot stands in the Liberty taste (€80-100)                                         | 1274* A lot of various ornaments on cupboard (€15-20)                                                                                                                                    |
| 1252* A mid-century English mahogany Younger Ltd., sideboard, the moulded top on a pair of single-door cupboards flanking four short drawers raised on tapering legs mounted with brass feet (€120-140) | 1264* A 1960s drop leaf dining table and two metal kitchen chairs (€25-40)                                                     | 1275* A Daikin air-conditioner (€50-60)                                                                                                                                           |
| BEDROOM                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1253* A four-burner gas cooker (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                 | 1265* A rare abstract framed engraving by Anton Calleja in period frame (b. 1950) (€20-30)                                     | 1277* A Deluxe table top fan (€5-10)                                                                                                                                              |
| 1254* A Stennah chair lift (€200-400)                                                                                                                                                            | 1266* A water-colour on paper painting depicting a cat signed G Short Lowe in frame (€15-20)                                   | 1278* A pair of green earthenware cache pots (€10-15)                                                                                                                                    |
| 1255* A wrought-iron console table having a dark green marble top (€50-60)                                                                                                                              | 1267* A lot of brass items in box (€20-30)                                                                                     | 1279* A Sony colour TV complete with remote control (€60-80)                                                                                                                      |
| 1256* A wrought-iron corner stand having a marble top (€20-30)                                                                                                                                          | 1268* A Joinwell G-plan three door mahogany wardrobe complete with top cupboard (€100-120)                              | 1280* A 1960s vintage wrought-iron lamp shade (€10-15)                                                                                                                                   |
| 1257* A lot of plastic chairs and a folding chair (€20-30)                                                                                                                                              | 1269* A Joinwell G-plan two door mahogany wardrobe (€80-100)                                                            | 1281* A Joinwell G-plan chest of drawers (€120-140)                                                                                                                               |
| 1258* Two vintage metal armchairs, one sprayed green and the other orange (€20-30)                                                                                                                      | 1270* A Joinwell G-plan triangular-shaped occasional table (€40-60)                                                     | 1282* An antique late 19 th cent mahogany wardrobe on chest, the moulded cornice on a two-door case on a moulded top on a chest of drawers raised on a plinth base (€150-200) |
| 1259* An antique early 20th cent shisha complete with ebonised square coffee table (€60-80)                                                                                                             | 1271* Two oil on canvas paintings one depicting a still life of flowers and foliage and another of a wooded landscape (€20-30) | 1283* A pair of 1960s vintage Italian inlaid plaques depicting village scenes (€20-30)                                                                                                   |
| 1260* A lot of plants in pots (€10-15)                                                                                                                                                                  | 1272* A sundry lot of crockery in box (€10-15)                                                                                 | 1284* A pair of oil on canvas paintings depicting wooded scenes in gilt frame (€20-30)                                                                                                   |
| 1261* A 1960s vintage sideboard (€50-60)                                                                                                                                                                | 1273* A Joinwell G-plan two door cupboard raised on four long drawers (€100-120)                                        | 1285* A pair of carved Florentine gilt lampshades and                                                                                                                                    |

|                                                                                                                                |       |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| a gesso figure of the infant of Prague (€20-30)                                                                                | 1296* | A    | machine-made carpet (€15-20)                                                                                                                                                                                                         | base raised on carved acanthus leaf carved feet (€250-300)                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1286* A lot of curtains and unsewn curtain material (€20-30)                                                                   | 1297* | Two  | 1970s Mdina glass vases (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 1307* An antique 19th Cent Maltese mahogany chest of drawers, the bow-fronted moulded top on two shaped short drawers on three shaped long drawers flanked by carved uprights decorated with carved masks on a moulded base on bun feet (€150-200) |
| 1287* A pair of Joinwell G-plan bedside tables (€40-60)                                                                 | 1298* | A    | Florentine wall plaque of the Virgin and Child (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                              | 1308* A resin figure representing the Immaculate Conception and a Leonardo collection bust of the Virgin and Child (€20-30)                                                                                                                        |
| 1288* A Joinwell G-plan single divan bed with mattress and mahogany headboard (€40-60)                                  | 1299* | Five | oil on canvas paintings depicting landscapes in gilt frames (€40-50)                                                                                                                                                                 | 1309* A pair of 1940s Italian gesso figures representing children (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1289* A Joinwell G-plan single bed with mattress and mahogany headboard (€40-60)                                        | 1300* | An   | AEG Automatic washing machine (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                                        | 1310* A turned wood lampshade (€10-30)                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1290* An antique oleograph depicting La Madonna Della Seggiola after Raphael in gilt frame (€35-40)                            | 1301* |      | A gilt cartouche-shaped dressing table mirror (€20-30)                                                                                                                                                                               | 1311* Three thick pile good quality carpets (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1291* A wall plaque of the Virgin of Sorrows and a framed wall plaque representing the Virgin and child (€15-20)               | 1302* |      | A Joinwell G-plan leather upholstered armchair (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                       | 1312* A Joinwell G-plan TV chair (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1292* A bundle of bed spreads (€20-30)                                                                                         | 1303* |      | A 1950s good quality white and gilt dressing table complete with mirror (€60-80)                                                                                                                                                     | 1313* A pair of good quality blue and gold striped curtains bought from Camilleri Paris Mode (€80-100)                                                                                                                                             |
| 1293* A bundle of table linen (€20-30)                                                                                         | 1304* |      | A chrome and plastic invalid's adjustable table (€30-40)                                                                                                                                                                             | 1314* A Joinwell G-plan round stool having a mustard-coloured seat (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1294* A pair of antique mahogany wall mounted shelving having mirrored backs mounted with turned uprights and finials (€20-30) | 1305* | An   | Apollo 5 Premium inflatable mattress (€80-100)                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1295* A pair of good quality machine-made carpets having a powder blue field (€20-30)                                          | 1306* |      | An antique 19th cent mahogany swing mirror, the carved cornice decorated with a central rose and scrolls and foliage on a framed swing mirror on turned scroll uprights raised on carved acanthus leaf bases on a serpentine-fronted |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

LIVING-ROOM

1315* A pair of antique Edwardian English School oil on canvas paintings depicting a stag and deer, signed Mabel Mortimer in gilt frame (€200-250)

- 1316* An assorted lot of crockery in box (€20-30)
- 1317* A mahogany cased Maltese clock having a painted Roman numeral dial, battery mechanism and visible pendulum (€40-60)
- 1318* An oil on board painting depicting an Italianate landscape by Paul Camilleri Cauchi dated 1969 in gilt frame (€500-550)
- 1319* An antique Victorian brass oil lamp having an etched shade and raised on an alabaster base (€200-250)
- 1320* An antique pink and white French vase decorated with hand-painted flowers and foliage to the waist mounted with an arrangement of fruit and foliage raised on an ebonised plinth (€60-80)
- 1321* A Joinwell Regency desk armchair having an upholstered seat (€80-100)
- 1322* A Chinese blue and white baluster-shaped lamp (€30-50)
- 1323* An antique late 19th cent mahogany and inlaid chest of drawers, the moulded top on two short and three long drawers having canted and inlaid corners throughout inlaid with delicate foliage raised on bun feet (€200-250)
- 1324* A 1960s wrought-iron floor lamp (€35-40)
- 1325* An antique late 19th Cent Viennese terracotta wall plaque depicting a young maiden filling at a spring with buckets at her feet in gilt frame (€180-200)
- 1326* An antique 19th Cent carved alabaster large flower vase decorated with carved scroll handles and decorated with grapes to the waist raised on a round base (€250-300)
- 1327* A 1940s Maltese mahogany dwarf chest of drawers, the moulded top on two long drawers on a shaped apron on cabriole legs (€60-80)
- 1328* An antique Maltese late 19th cent mahogany bureau bookcase, the carved cornice on a triple moulding on a two-door case with adjustable shelving on a moulded top on a deep drawer opening to reveal a fitted interior of pigeon holes and drawers on three long drawers with carved uprights on a moulded base on bun feet (€800-1000)
- 1329* Eight antique 1940s porcelain cups and saucers decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€20-30)
- 1330* A hand-cut lead crystal decanter complete with stopper (€30-40)
- 1331* A hand-cut lead crystal desk bell (€10-15)
- 1332* A hand-cut lead crystal single stem flower vase raised on a round base (€20-25)
- 1333* A hand-cut lead crystal long flower vase (€20-25)
- 1334* A hand-cut lead crystal urn-shaped flower vase (€25-30)
- 1335* A hand-cut lead crystal decanter complete with stopper (€30-40)
- 1336* A set of six hand-cut lead crystal whisky glasses and five others (€20-30)
- 1337* A set of six hand-cut lead crystal cognac glasses on stems (€20-30)
- 1338* A Beyer hand-cut lead crystal flower vase (€20-30)
- 1339* A hand-cut lead crystal covered box (€10-15)
- 1340* A set of six hand-cut lead crystal sherry glasses (€30-40)
- 1341* Two perfume bottles having silver mounts (€20-30)
- 1342* A hand-cut lead crystal drinks jug (€10-15)
- 1343* A semi-crystal table decanter complete with stopper (€15-20)
- 1344* A set of six 1940s tea cups and saucers decorated with delicate flowers and foliage (€15-20)

- 1345* A Coalport Virgin and Child with St Elizabeth and St John the Baptist and onlooking St Joseph in gilt frame (€60-80)
- 1346* A German Metternich silvered gilt tea service for six persons (€25-30)
- 1347* Two Sterling silver napkin rings (€20-30)
- 1348* An antique Continental porcelain milk jug decorated with blue flowers and foliage and two others (€30-40)
- 1349* A 1940s porcelain coffee service for six persons decorated with spring flowers and foliage (€20-30)
- 1350* An antique Edwardian carved bone cigar holder mounted with a figure of a female nude in case (€40-50)
- 1351* A part Czech porcelain dessert service for six persons having a fluted rim and decorated with stylised flowers and foliage complete with serving dish and a sectioned comport (€25-30)
- 1352* A 1950s Czech cake service decorated with transfer miniatures of classical scenes to the base (€25-30)
- 1353* A collection of assorted egg shell part tea service and plates decorated with hand-painted landscapes to the base and waist (€25-30)
- 1354* An antique 19th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting The
- 1355* An antique early 20th cent model of a Maltese country house with figures and carriages under glass case inscribed Maltese Country House by Raffaele Engerer complete with table (€350-400)
- 1356* A 1970s Europhon record player (€20-30)
- 1357* A 1960s Florentine gilt turned lampstand having a round base (€80-100)
- 1358* A 1960s Italian School oil on canvas painting depicting a village view signed Rondi (€20-30)
- 1359* A water-colour on paper painting depicting geraniums in gilt frame (€60-80)
- 1360* A Chinese crackled effect octagonal cache pot decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€20-30)
- 1361* An antique Edwardian mahogany and line-inlaid salon showcase, the raised back rail on a moulded top on an inlaid frieze door case with glazed sides on a shaped apron raised on tapering inlaid legs (€350-400)
- 1362* A 1940s coffee service for six persons decorated with stylised flowers and foliage (€20-30)
- 1363* An antique 18th cent Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting the Baptism of Christ unframed (€300-350)
- 1364* A pair of antique Victorian vases mounted with flowers made of shells, one with glass dome (€160-180)
- 1365* An antique late 19th Cent French clock, the round porcelain Roman numeral dial mounted with a figure of a young mariner and surmounted with a single mast boat beside a lighthouse-shaped trophy mounted with nautical attributes on a white alabaster-mounted base under glass dome (€650-700)
- 1366* An antique Maltese mid-19th cent mahogany bow-fronted chest of drawers, the moulded top on two short and three long shaped drawers raised on bun feet (€200-250)
- 1367* An English School oil on canvas painting depicting a Scottish Loch scene signed C. Mc Auley (€100-120)
- 1368* An antique Maltese School oil on canvas painting depicting a still life of spring flowers and foliage by Candido Giglio (1895-1960) (€300-350)
- 1369* An antique French late 19th cent baluster-shaped flower vase decorated with spring flowers and foliage (€15-20)

|       |                                                                                                                                                  |       |                                                                                                                                               |                                               |                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1370* | An antique late 19 th cent turquoise glass twin-handled flower vase decorated with birds to the waist (€40-50)                        | 1380* | An antique Satsuma part tea service decorated with dragons (€15-20)                                                                           | under-stretcher raised on bun feet (€400-450) |                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1371* | A 1950s Italian porcelain centrepiece mounted with gilt handles (€20-30)                                                                         | 1381* | Two antique 19 th cent Daniel Crawford Scotch Whiskey glasses on stems (€30-40)                                             | 1390*                                         | An oil on canvas painting depicting a Maltese farmhouse in gilt frame by George Apap dated 1976 (€200-450)                                                         |
| 1372* | A 1960s mahogany and inlaid dwarf chest of drawers, the inlaid top on two drawers raised on tapering legs (€150-200)                             | 1382* | An antique 19 th cent Dewers Scotch Whiskey decanter complete with stopper (€60-80)                                         | 1391*                                         | An antique Chinese cloisonné baluster-shaped flower vase (€15-20)                                                                                                  |
| 1373* | A pastel on paper drawing depicting Dachshunds signed C.N.V White in cream and gilt frame (€15-20)                                               | 1383* | A pair of Sterling silver candlesticks mounted on round bases (11cm) (€40-50)                                                                 | 1392*                                         | A pair of Joinwell Reprodux demi-lune side tables, the moulded top on a short-moulded frieze on four slender turned legs (€140-160)                         |
| 1374* | An antique late 19 th cent salon mirror having an ornate gilt frame (€30-40)                                                          | 1384* | A Sterling silver posy holder raised on a round base (€35-40)                                                                                 | 1393*                                         | A good quality machine-made carpet having a powder blue field (€25-30)                                                                                             |
| 1375* | A water-colour on paper painting depicting a portrait of a young woman, signed N. Mc Parlatan (€200-350)                                         | 1385* | A mouth blown glass ash tray (€10-15)                                                                                                         | 1394*                                         | Two modern three-seater sofas upholstered in blue material (€140-160)                                                                                              |
| 1376* | A pair of antique late 19 th cent Belgian porcelain oval serving dishes decorated with delicate sprays of foliage to the rim (€45-50) | 1386* | An antique carved stone ash tray in the shape of the head of Mephisto (€20-30)                                                                | 1395*                                         | An antique late 19 th cent mahogany centre table, the moulded top on a short frieze on carved and turned shaft on four carved and splay feet (€400-450) |
| 1377* | A pair of good quality gold and cream damask curtains (€20-30)                                                                                   | 1387* | An antique wool on wool hand-knotted Persian rug having a geometric design (€30-40)                                                           | 1396*                                         | A lot of books on various subjects (€10-15)                                                                                                                        |
| 1378* | A set of six Park Lane Collection Christmas figures (€15-20)                                                                              | 1388* | An antique wool on wool hand-knotted Persian rug having a geometric design (€30-40)                                                           | 1397*                                         | A lot of antique 19 th cent engravings depicting Grandmasters of the Order (€40-50)                                                                     |
| 1379* | A pair of four-branch porcelain candelabra mounted with figures of angels (€5-10)                                                                | 1389* | An antique mid-19 th cent mahogany library table, the moulded top on two short frieze drawers on lyre-shaped supports joined by an | 1398*                                         | A coloured Icelandic school lithograph depicting a fishing boat signed Myra Kortov dated 1995 in silvered frame (€80-100)                                          |

|       |                                                                                                     |       |                                                                                                                                   |       |                                                               |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1399* | A 1940s mahogany-cased wall clock having a steel Arabic numeral dial with visible pendulum (€50-60) | 1402* | A pair of mixed media on paper abstract prints in red frame by Gabriel Caruana (1929-2018) signed and dated 2006 (€50-60)         | 1404* | Two hard bound volumes of Malta 360, Legacy in Stone (€40-50) |
| 1400* | Illustrated London News bound volume Jan-June 1885 (€50-100)                                 | 1403* | A water-colour on paper painting depicting a Caribbean Santa Margherita beach scene, signed Frank Halliday (1934-2003) (€200-250) | 1405* | An antique mahogany lectern (€40-60)                          |
| 1401* | A 1940s boxed mother-of-pearl ware dolls tea service for six in box (€30-40)                        |       |                                                                                                                                   | 1406* | A 1960s gilt salon mirror in ornate gilt frame (€40-50)       |